MP Neil Parish defends NHS plans in heated debate

MP NEIL Parish accused a Honiton resident of making spurious claims during a heated debate on privatisation of the NHS.

Honiton Senior Voice (HSV) had invited the MP to a meeting on Friday, October 4th to discuss "privatisation of healthcare".

The meeting quickly came to focus on a local non-emergency patient transportation contract awarded to private contractor NSL.

Prior to the meeting HSV chairman Vic Bowsher said: "We have real concerns about this."

The meeting was also attended by Caroline Dawe of New Devon NHS Clinical Commissioning Group and NSL account director Steve Roe.

Ms Dawe explained that the new contract, which became effective on October 1st, would mean a vast improvement with a round the clock service every day of the year.

She also said that the contract had been subject to a stringent tendering process.

At this point all seemed well, but that changed when members of the public were allowed to speak and ask questions.

Honiton resident Tony Simpson presented a dossier of news articles from around the country about NSL.

It included accounts of patients not being picked up and calls for re-tendering of contracts awarded to NSL.

Mr Simpson said: "This is the company now going to run our transports."

"Privatisation of the NHS is increasing and it is happening here in Honiton. I went to Mr Parish's hustings and I didn't hear anything about it.

"This is a private equity company, and a very profitable one."

Mr Parish intervened and accused Mr Simpson of spouting "lots of spurious things".

But the assembled crowd responded by applauding Mr Simpson, and HSV chairman Vic Bowsher asked the crowd: "Is it your desire that Tony carries on?"

The answer was a resounding 'yes'.

Mr Simpson continued his verbal assault by saying: "Services are outsourced to companies in it to make profit."

"I say 'no'."

When Mr Parish eventually got to speak, he said: "I'm sure some of the early mistakes have been put right."

"We need to give the company a chance. We will hold the provider to account. The idea of reform is that we can deliver a better service."

"Around the edges, yes, we are tinkering – but so was the last government. It is not a case of mass-privatisation."

"I will be back in the not so distant future so you can hold me to account."

Nobody on the panel challenged the accuracy of reports in Mr Simpson's dossier.

Quotes of the week...

“ THE system has to be changed. It has let this council down on numerous occasions and even more importantly it has let the residents of this town down. They, quite simply, deserve better. There can be no more hiding behind closed doors and issuing statements which say nothing. The people have a right to know what is going on. It is clear the interviewing process is deeply flawed and this needs addressing urgently’

Rise hit ten in county cup win

MILLWEY Rise began their defence of the Buddens-Westinsure Devon Intermediate Cup (Eastern section) in emphatic fashion with a 10-0 mauling of Beer Albion Reserves at Harry's Field.

Tim Bough came off the bench to lead the scoring with a hat-trick - his first goals for the club.

Pete Knox, in free-scoring form in the Devon & Exeter League Premier division with Seaton Town, scored twice as did Brad-Lee Miller and top-scorer Levi Hoole who moved up to eight for the season.

Elliott Dyer chipped-in with a single for Rise who return to Perry Street & District League Premier Division action at the weekend when they entertain reigning champions Winsham United.

Another road crash on A35

FOUR people were taken to hospital after another road crash on the notorious A35 at Axminster.

The accident happened near the Trinity Hill turning just before 10.30am on Monday and involved two vehicles.

One car ended up on its roof and emergency services rushed to the scene.

The ambulance service had two rapid response cars and two ambulances at the scene, and a spokesperson said shortly after the accident: "A total of four people were injured. One patient was taken to hospital."

The person first taken to hospital was a pregnant woman. She was the driver of one of the cars involved, and was taken to hospital for what appears to have been precautionary checks.

A police spokesperson later said that the other three casualties had eventually also been taken to hospital, with cuts and scrapes.

The vehicles were recovered about two hours after the accident and the road was handed over to The Highways Agency, which set about clearing up the fuel spillages caused by the accident.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service added: "On arrival crews found all persons to be free and clear of the vehicles.

"Crews set about making the vehicles safe and casualties were being treated by the ambulance service."

The accident happened only a short distance from the Hunters Lodge junction accident blackspot.

Only a few weeks ago, Axminster Guildhall was packed when MP Neil Parish hosted a public meeting to reinforce calls for action.

One of those attending was the son of a woman who died in accident at the Hunters Lodge junction earlier this year.

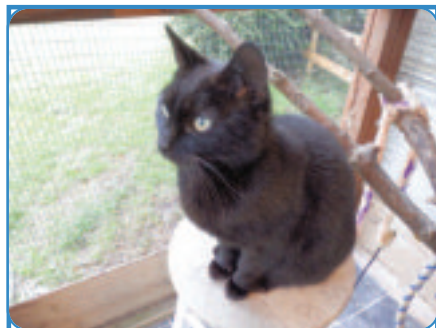

Gerry Manning had travelled from Surrey to attend the meeting, during which he said: "I owe it to my mum to change that junction."

His mother, 82-year-old Pamela Manning, was declared dead at the scene after the accident on May 10th.

Her friend Paula Townsend died in hospital a week later.

Those at the meeting heard that The Highways Agency had decided to ditch a plan of improvement work because it was based on outdated statistics.

Instead, The Highways Agency is expected to present a revised plan in December.

From the editor's chair Council must deliver

MORE fireworks in the town council chamber in Seaton last week – although they turned out to be damp squibs in the end.

Following the shock resignation of town clerk Mike Neale, much admired although he had only been in the job since June, the council called a special meeting to discuss the circumstances behind his resignation and the appointment of a replacement.

As in all matters regarding staff, local councils invariably go into committee and exclude the public and press – that was me and two local people.

I fully expected to be shown the door but former journalist Tony Woodman, one of a minority of councillors who actually has a mandate from the good citizens of Seaton as he was elected at a by-election (as opposed to the majority who got in unchallenged at the last full election), did his best to persuade his colleagues to have their discussion in full council.

No journalist likes to see elected public representatives discussing matters behind closed doors, including me.

But it is common practice for all local authorities to go into committee when discussing staffing matters and it is perfectly lawful for them to do so.

I know Tony well and have worked with him for a long time. He's not the sort of chap to back down and will always say exactly what he thinks. His argument was that it's the people of Seaton who pay the town clerk's wages so they should know exactly why he resigned after just three months in the hot seat.

And he's perfectly in his right to ask why Seaton cannot keep a town clerk for more than a few months.

Mike Neale's statement issued after his resignation does not tell us much. He spoke about not "being comfortable" in his role and in the circumstances in which he found himself. Read what you will into that.

Tony lost the day over his bid to get a public discussion on the clerk's resignation. It won't be the last battle he loses in the council chamber, that's for sure.

However, it was good to read that the council, in their statement on the situation after their behind-closed-doors session, are committed to "serving the town and its people in the best way we can".

After all the bickering over the past few months, the people of Seaton will be looking to them to deliver on that promise.

♦ Philip Evans

SEATON

Council search for new clerk

SEATON Town Council has started the process of appointing their third town clerk in two years – but the decision was not made without another bitter clash in the council chamber.

A special meeting of the council was convened on Thursday of last week to discuss the shock resignation of town clerk Mike Neale, who had been in office since June.

In his letter of resignation, reported in last week's Pulman's View, Mr Neale said: "I am genuinely sorry to be leaving the position of clerk so soon but for some time I have struggled with many aspects of the role and not been comfortable with the circumstances I find myself caught up in. I am committed to continuing my duties through my notice period and wish the council well for the future."

Town mayor Gaynor Sedgwick expressed her disappointment that Mr Neale had relinquished his post and paid tribute to his short service to the council.

She said: "We are really sorry and disappointed to be losing Mike Neale. He has tremendous qualities and skills which we have benefited from.

"Our staff and councillors will miss him and regret he is leaving us. However we wish him well."

At last Thursday's special meeting, Councillor Sedgwick, in view of the "confidential nature" of Mr Neale's resignation, moved a proposition that the press and public be excluded from the meeting, explaining that the council's standing orders stated that staffing matters should not be discussed in open council and that guidance had been sought from the National Association of Local Councils.

She then put the proposition to the meeting, with the majority voting in favour of excluding the press and public, a decision strongly opposed by Councillor Tony Woodman.

The council later issued the following statement: "Seaton Town Council held a full council meeting on Thursday, October 3rd to discuss the next steps following the resignation of Mr Mike Neale, Town Clerk. Councillors discussed the way forward and it was agreed that a qualified locum clerk should be employed during the interim period and that we would advertise for a new Clerk.

"Councillor Gaynor Sedgwick said: "We are very sorry to be losing Mike Neale, who in the short time he has been with the council has made some positive changes."

MP defends NHS private services

MP NEIL Parish accused a Honiton resident of making spurious claims during a heated debate on privatisation of the NHS.

SIDMOUTH

Another top bloom award

SIDMOUTH has won the top prize in the annual South West in Bloom awards.

The town was awarded the gold prize in the medium sized coastal town category for its outstanding gardens and floral displays.

The Preece Cup, awarded for the best of the gold prize winners across the South West, will be presented to the town council at the Sidmouth in Bloom Awards evening on Thursday, October 17th.

Peter Enderby, the Sidmouth in Bloom treasurer said: "We had a poor start to the summer but eventually the plants picked up.

"It's a whole town project. The judging was changed to take in community effort and environmental causes as well."

Devon County Councillor and Sidmouth Town Council member Stuart Hughes echoed the efforts of the local community in achieving the recognition: "We have got a great story to tell and this community has got right behind the committee and I think that's what sets Sidmouth apart.

"Our success in this competition goes back years and it is really great news for the whole community."

Sidmouth was also nominated for two more awards in the competition. Connaught Gardens and the Three Corner Plot were nominated for the Municipal Prize while Sidmouth College was nominated for the Schools' Prize.

Awards night at college

by Jack Dixon

HONITON Community College celebrated another year of success for its lower school with an awards evening last Thursday.

Certificates and cups were handed out to the highest achieving pupils from Years Seven to Nine and there were also a series of dramatic and musical performances to highlight the college's multi-talented student body.

Governors' awards were presented to one student from each year group who had displayed outstanding levels of overall achievement.

Ellie Beigan (Year Seven) added the main prize to her five subject awards to round off an exceptional academic year, while Jack Haigh picked up four subject awards before collecting the Governors' award for Year Eight.

Gabriel Parker-Gifford was the outstanding achiever for Year Nine, adding the trophy to his earlier successes in English, Music and Information Technology.

Chloe Pottinger (Year Nine) was also praised for her excellent solo vocal performance, alongside academic improvements in Mathematics and Music.

Principal Glenn Smith was full of praise for the students. He said: "You cannot help but be moved by an evening such as this. This year has been a particularly special year for us.

"Staff have worked harder than ever before this year and the students have been committed to maximising their potential.

"This is only a highlight, a flavour of what happens here – everyday magical things go on at this college."

On song at town crier competition

HONITON'S representatives were on song during the recent Seaton Town Crier Competition.

Honiton town crier Dave Retter was announced Best Ambassador and clinched the Craner Cup, whilst his escort, Kassa Retter, won the Best Dressed Escort category.

The competition was organised by Seaton Chamber of Commerce and hosted by Seaton town crier David Craner.

Calne town crier Mark Wylie was the overall winner and a total of 14 pairs of town criers and escorts took part.

Stanhope's cancer care fundraiser

RESIDENTS, staff and volunteers of Abbeyfield's Stanhope House sheltered housing held a coffee morning and raised more than £130 for Macmillan Cancer Care. The event took place on September 27th and house-keeper Gaynor Brown said: "A lovely morning was had by all, as well as raising £131.50. We would like to say a special thank you for everyone's support, especially the volunteers."

LymeNet

Community Learning Centre

By Peter Jeff

AT this time of year when the schools go back, Axminster loses its holiday feel, and people's minds turn back to work. It is also the beginning of the learning year for LymeNet as our various qualification courses start up again, and as usual so many of our learners are from Axminster.

Actually we hate to be thought of as a school, because one of the things we do best is to cater for people who found their education experience unhappy or unhelpful. Each year we teach over 250 people but our small classes and individualised tuition couldn't be less like schools of yesteryear. Which is ironic since we are housed in an old school.

Even the start dates for some courses are flexible, as we try to fit round people's real life situation, some courses are in the evening. And looking around one of our classes you will not see the uniformly aged faces sitting in rows. We cater for people from all walks of life (and we sit around one big table). For instance the average age of our Maths students this year is 42. (Yes I can still 'do' averages!). Some need Maths for their future prospects but others want the challenge of overcoming something they found difficult in earlier life. Whilst we also offer English and IT qualifications, we often run all sorts of non-accredited courses for individuals and groups and businesses, wishing to learn important computer-related skills....even how to Ebay, use a Mac, or Skype.

This year LymeNet's Lottery grant ends. We get regular visits from the Big Lottery to look at our paperwork and outcomes, and we have passed our examinations. They seem delighted with what we have delivered, the levels of satisfaction by our users and learners, and the changes we have made to people's lives, in skills, self confidence, and qualifications. Our pass rates are in the upper 90 per cent level.

Our funding has also changed in other ways. We are delighted to still work with Dorset Adult Learning who fund many of our courses, so that some of our learners get them free. But we work with many people from Devon also. However, with the changes in the school leaving age it seems we can no longer get funding for people who are still of school age.

No more 'marathon' meetings

PLANS to restrict public speaking and streamline planning meetings have been drawn up by East Devon District Council (EDDC) officers.

The plans, not yet passed, have been designed to avoid a repeat of marathon meetings lasting up to 13 hours.

Public speaking policy at all meetings is being reviewed, with special attention being given to the Development Management Committee (DMC).

The issue came to a head after the June 11th DMC meeting, which lasted 11 hours and saw committee members' lunch break slashed from one hour to 20 minutes.

Councillors appeared to agree that nobody would benefit from such a long meeting and councillor Douglas Hull (Axminster) raised the issue at Standards Committee on June 18th.

At the time he said: "No councillor or officer can stay fresh for that long and think clearly about planning."

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

He didn't appear keen on restricting public speaking, though, instead suggesting DMC agendas be split over two meetings.

Currently, any member of the public can turn up and register to speak for a maximum of three minutes on any application at a DMC meeting.

But officers have suggested that only those who have already made a formal, written comment on the planning application in question be allowed to speak.

Another proposal is to only allow a 15-minute period of public speaking for each application, which in effect would mean two supporters and two objectors.

A report prepared for EDDC's Standards Committee said: "Well thought out public speaking arrangements can enhance democratic participation."

"However, repetition of the same issues or the introduction of issues that are not relevant to the council or the decision being made can result in overly long meetings where the quality of decision making can be adversely affected."

The report and possible ways forward will be discussed by the Standards Committee on Wednesday October 9th.

The report also suggested that any change be brought in on a four-month trial basis.

■ CHALLENGE: Sue Pyle, Emma Hervin, Lucy Foster, Ian Robinson, Catherine Vickridge and Gareth Marshall

Hospital staff in Great West run

STAFF from Sidmouth and Honiton hospitals are part of a six-strong Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust's squad for The Great West Run in Exeter on October 13th.

Head of podiatry Ian Robinson and administrator Emma Hervin, both based at Newcourt House in Exeter, will be joined by senior podiatrists Lucy Foster (East Devon), Catherine Vickridge (Budleigh Salterton Hospital) and Gareth Marshall (Honiton Hospital) as well as Sue Pyle, the diabetes lead podiatrist based at Sidmouth Hospital.

The half Marathon will cover a new course through Exeter and the podiatry team will be raising money for Integrated Diabetic Footcare, a charity that supports the trust by assisting with the purchase of equipment, contributing towards staff education and development, improving staff facilities and providing resources to allow staff to undertake non-commercial research and educational activities.

To sponsor the team, please write a cheque to Integrated Diabetic Footcare and send it to: MacLeod Diabetes and Endocrine Centre, RD&E Wondford, Barrack Road, Exeter, EX2 5DW.

Hospiscare roadshows

HOSPISCARE is staging a series of roadshows to give detailed information about plans to build a day hospice in Honiton.

Members of the public are encouraged to attend and find out more during the roadshows this month.

The dates are: Saturday October 12th at The Star Inn in Honiton

Primary school's Harvest Festival

LITTLETOWN Primary School celebrated its Harvest Festival with a special assembly on Thursday.

Pupils from Years One and Two performed a series of songs and showed off their artwork to friends and family.

The school had been collecting food donations in the run-up to the performance with all proceeds going to the King's Centre Food Bank in Honiton.

Mind group highlight Mental Health Week

MIND East Devon is highlighting World Mental Health Week (October 6th-12th) with an open day at its Honiton base today (Tuesday, October 8th).

The base is known as The Haven and is located at 32-34 High Street. It will be open from 10am-4pm.

Support time and recovery co-ordinator Jan Ludwell said: "Part of what Mind as an organisation campaigns for is to break down barriers surrounding mental health and raise awareness to stop stigma and discrimination.

"You are welcome to call in to the centre anytime between 10am and 4pm. You can also learn how you can join The Haven, have a reflexology session, do some pottery, find out the benefits of mindfulness/tai chi.

"We will be displaying art, photography and pottery work - and you can also visit our Time to Change stand."

Military man brings fitness classes to town

by Jack Dixon

IN RECENT years he has been used to training with the Territorial Army and instructing Afghan soldiers, but now a Honiton man has brought his military fitness programme back home.

Peter Hardy, who has lived in Honiton for over 20 years, is the proprietor of Southwest Military Fitness, a unique outdoor training school which organises public sessions in local parks across Devon.

The classes are similar to circuit training and involve a variety of exercise routines based on real military training ideas, tailored to suit all ages and abilities for 18s and over.

Mr Hardy said: "All my instructors are serving or ex-serving military physical training instructors. They're taught to train large groups of people and get the best out of them.

"The aim is to compliment key military principles with enjoyable, relaxed and personally challenging fitness training, regardless of your level of fitness or age."

The idea began in Exmouth in 2010 as a club for people who wanted to get involved in outdoor fitness but the concept snowballed as recruits from the Wyvern

Barracks in Exeter started turning up for extra sessions.

Three years on, Southwest Military Fitness also runs sessions in Plymouth, Teignmouth and now Honiton.

Mr Hardy: "One of the reasons for not coming to Honiton at the outset was that I knew the people here already and I was worried that they would recognise me and not take it seriously.

"But now it's grown and people can see how serious it's got, they're buying into it."

Mr Hardy is currently an Infantry Platoon Commander at the Wyvern Barracks but has a long history of overseas service.

His military career started in 1979 when he joined the army as a boy soldier before he went on to serve in Northern Ireland, Kenya and Georgia amongst others.

He recently returned from Helmand Province in Afghanistan where he served as a mentor to the Afghan National Army.

If the business continues its success, Mr Hardy has plans to extend the sessions even further: "This is the first time we've brought it to Honiton and it's still a trial period, but we're already looking at setting up evening classes and taking it to Escot as well."

Sessions take place on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday mornings at the Violet Hayman playing fields on Honiton Bottom Road.

Marie Curie set to form local group

MARIE Curie Cancer Care aims to form a fundraising group for Honiton and district.

Apart from fundraising, the group will also be tasked with raising awareness of the charity and the work undertaken by its nurses.

Community fundraising manager Natalie Searle said: "Fundraising groups make an enormous difference locally by helping to raise the vital funds we need so that Marie Curie Nurses can continue to provide free care to people with terminal cancer and other illnesses in their own homes within the local area.

"By being part of Marie Curie's new fundraising group, you will help by organising fundraising activities and collections in the local community, encouraging new volunteers to help the charity, as well as supporting Marie Curie's major fundraising campaigns such as the Great Daffodil Appeal and Blooming Great Tea Party."

Potential members can contact Natalie Searle on 01884 703535 or email devon.fundraising@mariecurie.org.uk for more information.

Freewheelers' open day

MEMBERS of volunteer blood courier Devon Freewheelers held an open day at their Honiton headquarters. Those attending could find out more about Devon Freewheelers, test sit some of the motorcycles used for NHS blood transports, and enjoy refreshments. The open day was held on Saturday, September 28th, and the photo shows some of those who attended.

The Nail Studio celebrates 1st birthday

IT'S OUR 1st Birthday, and I can't believe how quickly the time has gone since we opened at the beginning of October last year! We have had over 500 ladies (and gents) come in for treatments with ages ranging from 4 to 100! Sarah has also joined the team of Carol, Katie and Kelly and we have added more beauty treatments such as waxing, facials and eyelash/eyebrow tinting to our range so you can now have your pampering under one roof.

Our most popular nail treatment is without doubt the gel polish which is a longer lasting nail lacquer which can last up to 3 weeks and we have over 90 colours to choose from - so you may need to give yourself additional time to make your choice!

Massage is proving a real hit with the gents and along with the Indian Head and Thai Foot Massage we also offer Aromatherapy, Tension and Swedish Massage too - so if you are looking for something relaxing or something more to relieve stresses and knots we will certainly have something to suit your own particular needs.

At the Nail Studio we offer a friendly and calming environment where you can relax and have time to treat and pamper yourself - so call in and have a look around if you haven't already been to see us, I can guarantee you'll want to stay.

Boat race success for Honiton ATC

THE 1064 Honiton Squadron Air Training Corps claimed four golds and two silver medals at Wells Moat Boat Race.

The staff and cadets had to build a raft out of 45 gallon drums and paddles.

Squadron member Rebecca Trenchmann-Vance said: "The course – along one side of the moat to the Bishop's Palace in Wells – attracts competitors mainly from Somerset and is organised by Wells Lions Club and City of Wells Air Cadets.

"This year, we were told, had attracted a record number of entries, and Honiton Squadron entered two cadet classes, and four staff categories.

"The first race was the Bishop's Cup for teams including a serving member of Clergy, and Honiton was included as our padre, the Reverend Rik Pekham from Dunkeswell, was in our staff crew.

"Almost embarrassingly we won the first race of the day, by quite some margin.

"Swapping crews, the cadets from Honiton took part against other cadet youth groups, and won both their heat, and their first final.

"And so it went on. By the day's end the squadron had won four and come second in the other two classes.

"Trophies are due to be presented in mid-October when Sponsorship monies have been collected."

Honiton Air Cadets meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings, in their building on St Marks Road.

More information is available online at www.honitonatc.org, by emailing Honitonatc@gmail.com or calling 01404 43286.

Honiton man's medals mission

A HONITON man is on a mission to find homes for a handful of World War I Victory medals he has acquired.

Tom Hiron, of Langford Avenue, recently returned one of the medals to the Membury History Society and now hopes to find the families of the remaining ones.

His research has led him to uncover the stories of soldiers from across the country, but Mr Hiron has now been able to trace one of the medals to a man who lived locally.

It belonged to Private Frank Carnell who lived on Fore Street, Sidmouth, before he volunteered for service at the outbreak of war. He died a year before the end of the war, in August 1917.

Mr Hiron said: "These are the ones that nobody wants because they're not part of a collection, but they are still an important part of our history.

"Collectors will buy them in pairs and trios and put them away in drawers but I believe they should go back home, if not to the families then to the towns and villages.

"It's important to me that they are remembered there, especially with the centenary coming up."

Unfortunately, many of the soldiers' relatives Mr Hiron has approached have been less enthusiastic: "A lot of families just don't want to know about it.

"It's very sad. It's more the local villages and history societies I need to get in touch with now."

It is partly Mr Hiron's own family history that has encouraged him to persist in his attempts to return the medals.

His grandfather was involved in World War II at the age of 14 as a bugler aboard the HMS Illustrious, and survived the war against the odds.

Mr Hiron has offered to sell the medals on at the price he paid for them and is keen to make contact with anyone who might be interested in helping to find them a home.

He added: "It's just about being interested in history really, but there is a feel-good factor about doing it.

"I would love the help of someone from a local society or anyone with specialist knowledge on the subject.

"I paid very little for the medals and there's no profit in it at all. I'm simply trying to get the medals back home."

Lipreading classes offer support

A NEW initiative has begun in Honiton to help those living with partial hearing loss or deafness.

The Honiton Lipreading Class meets at the Methodist Church in Chapel Street on Monday mornings and offers tuition in lipreading and support for those with hearing difficulties.

The classes aim to reduce the feelings of isolation often felt by people with a loss of hearing by helping them to learn a practical skill which can be implemented in their daily lives.

Ruth Bizley set up the classes in Honiton after successful responses in Sidmouth and Exeter where she also teaches lipreading.

Mrs Bizley: "With lipreading you encourage people to make the most of what they've got and to make use of visual clues, like picking up facial expressions and gestures.

"In classes I also talk about other equipment and services available, so it's more than just the tuition. It's really lipreading and hearing difficulty support."

Lipreading is also considered to be helpful in encouraging people with hearing difficulties to regain confidence and to reintegrate with the rest of society.

Mrs Bizley added: "People often switch off or stop trying when they develop hearing difficulties.

"Lipreading can stop them becoming isolated and help them to grow in confidence."

Classes take place at the Methodist Church on Chapel Street on Monday mornings between 10am and 12noon.

For more details, please contact Ruth by email at ruth.bizley@lipreading.org.uk or call her on 01297 442239.

Town gearing up for Carnival week

THE finishing touches are being added to the preparations for this year's Honiton Carnival and organisers are confident of making it one of the best processions in Devon.

The carnival events begin on Saturday October 12th with a craft fair in Mackarness Hall which also features the crowning of the Carnival Queen, Cerys Phillips, and Carnival Princess, Erin Simmonds.

Carnival week itself starts on Sunday, October 20th with a quiz night at Honiton Working Men's Club and bingo at The Three Tuns the following evening.

There will be a children's carnival fancy dress party at Littleton Primary School on Thursday, October 24th before the procession itself on Saturday, October 26th.

The route starts at Ottery Moor Lane and finishes at Potters Close, and will be led by the Carnival Queen and the Devon Freewheelers, who will be escorting Mayor David Foster and Town Crier Dave Retter on their motorcycles. The procession promises to be one of the best in Devon with over 40 entries.

This year's chosen charities are Hospiscare and the Honiton Rugby Club Refurbishment Project.

If you would like to volunteer to marshal the procession please ring Robb Sleeman on 07966 665214.

Kids's fundraiser

YEAR Four pupils at Honiton Primary School raised more than £150 from a coffee morning in aid of Macmillan Cancer Care.

The event was held at the school on Friday, September 27th and takings came to £154, an amount that will grow when staff donations are included.

Lions' young leader raises more than £500

VICTORIA Synek Herd, local artist and Year 10 student at Colyton Grammar School, has been taking part in the Lions' Young Leaders in Service International Awards scheme.

The project is sponsored by Seaton and District Lions Club in association with Seaton's Voice, the community group who manage Seaton Town Hall and run a weekly youth club at which the YLiS meet.

Victoria has recently achieved her International Gold Award for completing well over 100 hours of community work during a 12 month period.

Young Leaders are young people, who become involved with their communities, giving of their time and any skills they may have and becoming role models for other youngsters.

by Ian Barradale

As part of this YLiS scheme, Victoria had the idea of holding a solo art exhibition.

She spent many hours of her free time painting for the exhibition, with work loosely based on a Natural Devon theme (including local scenery, fossils, leaves, Devon butterflies, natural landmarks and coastal scenes). Her paintings are mainly in water colour, with a few in pen and ink.

Victoria decided to sell her paintings during the exhibition at the town hall in Seaton with all proceeds going to Seaton & District Lions Club.

Victoria, together with help from Lion Janine Barradale – the Youth Officer for Seaton and District Lions – and the Seaton's Voice team, co-ordinated the event and created an arts café in Seaton Town Hall to showcase and sell her work.

The exhibition was a sell out, with many visitors attending to admire her work and buy her paintings.

Victoria raised £531 for Seaton and District Lions from the sale of her paintings.

Talk on 'Tornado' steam loco open to all

NON-members will be welcome at Seaton Probus Club when the story behind the Darlington Tornado steam locomotive is told.

Club member Steve Lord explained: "In 2008 a brand new steam locomotive was completed in Darlington at a cost of over £3m.

"Tornado is a 160-ton express pacific design and is the first new mainline engine to be manufactured since 1960 when Swindon Locomotive Works completed the famous Evening Star.

"The project to design and build Tornado was carried out by a team of enthusiasts, volunteers and professional bodies and was officially named at York by HRH the Prince of Wales.

"Seaton Probus Club is delighted to announce that we have secured the services of Bob Alderman, a member of the publicity and marketing team for the locomotive to give an illustrated talk to the club about the planning, building and operating of Tornado."

There are a number of places available to the general public, but these are strictly limited because of the size of St Gregory's Church Hall.

There is no charge for the tickets, but a donation to the locomotive fund would be welcomed.

The presentation will take place on Wednesday October 16th, starting at 10:30am.

Mr Lord concluded: "This most prestigious project has been well publicised on TV and in the national press.

"We are delighted to secure the services of Bob Alderman to talk to us about all aspects of the project.

"I am sure this will be of interest to people of Seaton and surrounding districts."

Those interested in attending should contact Mr Lord on 01297 21872 for tickets.

AXE Vale and District Conservation Society (AVDCS) members are pleased to report a bumper year for orchids known as Autumn Lady's-Tresses.

The orchids grow on roadside verges along Beer Road, Seaton, and are monitored by society members.

This year has seen hundreds of flowering plants emerge, partly because of last year's heavy rains, known to stimulate orchid growth the following year.

Rob Beard from AVDCS commented: "It's fantastic to see so many plants flourishing this year.

"These verges are fragments of unimproved grassland of high conservation value with many notable plants apart from just orchids.

"Proper management could make them great wildlife habitats."

Specialist Dementia Care in Exmouth & Devon

Give Your loved One The Gift Of A Fulfilling Life At Rose Lodge Care Home

Imagine the peace of mind you'll feel knowing that your loved one is getting the best possible care in a loving and understanding environment. Located in the delightful seaside town of Exmouth, Rose Lodge is the perfect place for people living with Dementia to experience the highest quality of life.

Caring for someone with dementia yourself can be tiring and often very distressing. Coping with someone whom you may have known and loved for years but who may now often fail to recognise you can be desperately upsetting and difficult to deal with.

Rose Lodge is an active and social home. We have found that people with dementia are generally happier when they are supported to be as active and independent as possible. Our weekly activities programme includes gardening, live music, drama, singing, crafts, a pub quiz, rambling, art, and trips out, as well as individual occupational activities.

So, moving into a home like Rose Lodge is the perfect way for you to give your loved one the best quality of life. In our 2011 relatives survey, all relatives agreed that Rose Lodge offers an excellent quality of care and that their loved one's wellbeing has improved significantly since they joined Rose Lodge. All of them said they would recommend Rose Lodge to their friends.

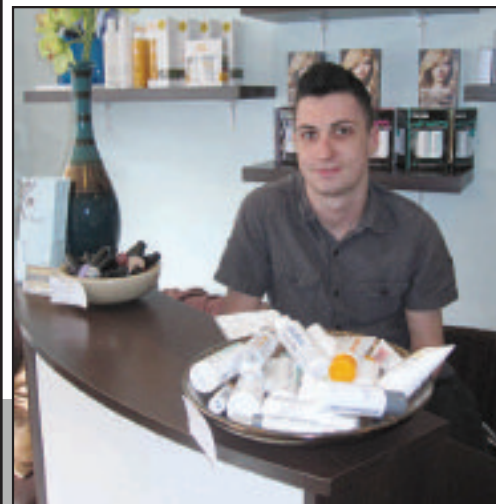

We offer DAY CARE, RESPITE CARE and RESIDENTIAL CARE and free trial days.

Please call Peter or Karen now on 01395 227071 to discuss your needs.

Beer motorhome crash driver admits blame

THE driver of a motorhome which hit a group of teenagers in Beer has pleaded guilty to causing serious injury by dangerous driving.

Arnold Kassera, 74, from Germany, was at the wheel of the vehicle when it crashed through a wall in July.

Two teenage girls were seriously hurt in the collision.

Kassera was temporarily disqualified from driving at Exeter Magistrates' Court. He will be sentenced next month.

Another award for Seafood Platter

A PUB in Beer has been recognised by the Taste Of The West food co-operative for the fourth year running.

The Seafood Platter won the silver award in the dining pub category, beating much larger competition in the process. It is the third successive year the pub has been awarded the runners up prize after it won the bronze in 2010.

The pub's owner Luke Hunt said: "It's very pleasing to have the awards year after year. We are just a rustic little place and we have big hotels either side of us on Fore Street."

Established in 1991, the Taste of the West is the largest independent food group in the country and the leading co-operative for food and drink producers in the South West. It aims to help food service and retail outlets source and supply quality local produce.

A commitment to locally sourced, sustainable food is one of the main reasons behind the pub's continued success. The Seafood Platter uses fish caught locally wherever possible and stocks beers brewed in the region as well as the occasional wine.

Mr Hunt: "For 15 years we have been using sustainable foods – it's about conscience and quality."

"The judges want to see that you are using fresh, local produce, with a low carbon footprint, which is sustainable for the local economy. It's a very thorough process and it's getting harder and harder to win."

In July last year the pub changed its name from the Barrel O' Beer to attract a broader range of customers and The Seafood Platter is now thriving.

"We haven't changed things dramatically since the name change but we are tweaking things here and there – one day we will have the gold!"

Methodist Church raises £378

■ A COFFEE morning in aid of Colyton Methodist Church raised £378. The event, organised by Katie Darby and ladies of the church, was held at Colyton Town Hall on Saturday morning, with a number of stalls and refreshments on offer. Organisers would like to thank all involved and those who supported the event.

St Andrew's makes plans for flower festival

ST ANDREW'S Church in Colyton will host a flower festival next year, five years after the last success. The festival will be held from June 19th to 22nd 2014 with full details to be revealed in the New Year.

Following the last "The Bibles says..." themed, next year's festival will have a bridal theme and those who enjoy working with flowers will be welcome to take part.

The festival will raise money for church funds and, to help with the cost of the event, the church will host a Christmas tree festival this December.

The Christmas festival will run from Wednesday,

December 4th to Saturday, December 7th with the opening coinciding with Colyton's annual Christmas Market.

Individuals, families and organisations are invited to bring their own tree and decorate it as they wish (battery operated lights only as there is not enough plug sockets for all).

Set up day will be Tuesday, December 3rd from 9.30am to 7.30pm. Entry forms are available from the church or Tony Hibberd at The Little Shop and should be returned to the churchwarden's box (rack at back of church) by Sunday, November 24th.

■ WARMING LUNCH: Friends of St Michael's Church in Colyford tuck into their homemade soup

THE Friends of St Michael's Church in Colyford held another of their popular soup and pudding lunches last week.

The warming lunch was held last Friday in the church with tables and chairs set up in the aisle. The lunch was held in addition to the monthly Cafe St Michael, which the Friends host every fourth Wednesday of the month at 10am, with the next being on October 16th.

The church's harvest festival will be held at 3.30pm on Sunday, October 27th which will be followed by lunch in Colyford Memorial Hall, organised by the social group.

St Michael's Christmas market will be held from 10.30am to 2.30pm on Saturday, November 9th which will include lunches and festive stalls.

Legal Problem? Worried about Costs? Need Someone On Your Side?

MOST people at some point in life have problems where they should seek legal help and do not know where to turn. Where do you find independent legal advice without initial cost? In days gone by there was a limited legal advice scheme, sponsored by the state, now no longer available or Legal Aid for some matters but, this is now only granted in very few cases, the majority of the population do not qualify for any assistance at all!

Citizens Advice Bureaus are under pressure and do not exist in many towns and villages and if so, on a very restricted basis. The traditional first port of call for legal help has been a high street solicitor.

Over the years many firms have closed branch offices other than in large centres and there are very few High Street outlets many of whom now charge even for an initial interview. The move has been towards large centres and a loss of personal contact, without the availability of home visits when necessary.

This does paint a rather bleak picture for those looking for legal help. However, help is on your doorstep. Milford & Dormor solicitors, a firm established as long ago as 1870 continue to offer a Free Initial Interview in respect of legal problems in many towns in the West Country, including Axminster and Seaton.

Within the Free Initial Interview you have an opportunity of explaining what your problem is and then receive advice as to how the Firm can help and, if instruction, what that will cost. The Firm also offers a range of funding options, including in some cases "no win no fee" and also paying fees by instalments.

So, for those occasions when you don't know where to turn and have a legal problem why suffer in silence? Take advantage of the FREE INITIAL INTERVIEW scheme.

Probus Club members pick up gardening tips

WITH sixty years of enthusiastic experience behind her, Mary Bengier, the creator of Burrow Farm Gardens at Dalwood, is uniquely qualified to talk about gardening.

In addressing Axminster Probus Club, where one of the requirements is to be retired, her subject, "Gardening Made Easier", was entirely appropriate for members.

At the meeting on October 1st she started by saying that the essence of enjoyable gardening is that it must be a pleasure; mindless chores and undue physical exertion are to be avoided.

For one who is such an enthusiast for plants it was mildly surprising that she was such an advocate of hard landscaping though, on reflection, entirely sensible. Paths allow easy access and act as a foil to the planting especially if a variety of materials is used.

Just don't use concrete, it causes drainage problems. Garden ornaments can add focus and interest to the planting schemes as can fences, pergolas and gates.

Unlike some, Mary is not totally committed to organic gardening and is prepared to use herbicides to control unwanted plants, though she is against the use of pesticides.

Her ideas are to utilise shrubs and ground cover plants to reduce weeding though it is necessary to exercise care in choice to ensure that over-vigorous varieties are avoided.

The talk was concluded with suggestions for shrubs and perennial border plants which would give the maximum pleasure for minimum effort. The members went away fired up with ideas but Mary would no doubt agree that the ideal garden is a long-term project.

The Axminster Probus Club for retired and semi-retired business and professional men meets at the Kilmington Cafe, Bistro & Motel on the A35 Gammons Hill on the first Tuesday of each month. For further information, ring 01460 220528.

Lunch club enjoy talk by Treasure Trails

MEMBERS of Hawkchurch-based Fairwater Head Hotel Lunch Club recently enjoyed a fascinating talk from Treasure Trails, the west country-based walking trails specialists.

Thirty of the lunch club members heard from David Gill and Caroline Paul of Treasure Trails, who told them how the company has sold over one million trails across the UK with some people having done over 100 trails.

Also how the company fought back from the recession and was looking forward to a bright future.

Said Adam Southwell of the Fairwater: "It was a fascinating talk describing how the trails are so popular while also explaining the business side. I never realised there are over 1,000 trails that families can enjoy. Many of these are in East Devon and I now want to try some myself. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the talk."

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

AXMOUTH

PRESIDENT Denise Gates welcomed everyone plus two members to the September meeting of Axmouth WI.

Members were told that tickets for the autumn group meeting at Musbury on October 25th were available from Sue. Information was also given out on pamper days, the Denman weekend, Gloucester Quay Market and the craft fair in Exeter. The autumn council meeting will be held in Plymouth on October 17th where Toyah Wilcox will be speaking.

A food and craft skills meeting will be held in Kilmington on October 7th, and specialist knitting themed Free-Standing Christmas Ornament will be held on November 4th, meet at 10.30am and bring your own lunch.

Stewart Leech MBE then gave a talk about his work as a prison officer. Born in Tiverton, he moved to Taunton before joining the army and serving in Germany, Cyprus, Northern Ireland and Beirut.

After working for a private agency, he joined the Prison Office and spent many years at Belmarsh Prison, London.

During his time as a prison officer, he came into contact with people from all walks of life, from drug addicts, pop stars, terrorists and members of parliament. He said that everyone who was found guilty by the courts was treated with humanity and had their rights respected.

Over 900 prisoners are housed in Belmarsh with about 50 people in the secure unit. Prisoners were encouraged to lead purposeful lives; some with low educational standard were encouraged to learn to read and write, some going on to do Open University degrees which they had to pay for themselves, either through work or sponsorship.

Art played a huge part in rehabilitation, especially with the increasing number of prisoners with mental health issues. WI members often go into prisons and teach cooking and domestic skills.

Competitions winners were: 1st Hilary Mabon, 2nd Sue Barnard, 3rd Irene Harrson.

Flower of the Month: 1st Lorraine Hipkin, 2nd Norma Sweetland, 3rd Pat Tresize.

The next meeting will be held on October 15th at Axmouth Hall, 2.30pm when Sue Barnard will demonstrate easy desserts for Christmas and the competition theme will be "Halloween Hat".

Flower club welcomes expert speaker

SIDMOUTH Flower Arrangement Club welcomed Vivienne Thompson as its latest demonstrator.

Vivienne is a past Area Chairman for the National Association of Flower Arrangement Societies in the South West so was very knowledgeable about the art.

She began by saying how much she enjoyed seeing the members competition and knew that she would be expecting a very high standard. The title this time was "Autumn Glory".

Vivienne's first arrangement, continuing the theme of autumn, was of tall sticks interlaced with flame and peach coloured carnations on a base of coir with hypericum berries and peris sprigs.

When it was finished with an orange chiffon tie it was reminiscent of the first fires of the season.

With Halloween coming up, Vivienne then worked on an arrangement on a tall stand with twigs at the top like a besom. The stand had been made by her resourceful husband and the flower colourings were vivid and fiery.

Next, a large rustic basket symbolised harvest and she cleverly mixed together fruit, flowers and vegetables. The runner beans came from the churchwarden's garden.

Two pieces, which both had metal curved stands, were most attractive. One using shades of pale pinks including hydrangea, rose aqua, germinis and calla lilies was a subtle contrast to other fiery exhibits.

The finales depicted a harvest moon, an oasis foam ball was covered in moss and sprayed silver and, making rays of light, were Singapore orchids and white spray roses. It looked most effective as it hung freely in its circular frame.

October will host the club's annual general meeting, when members will receive a talk about "Plants for the Flower Arranger" and there will be stalls to buy plants and accessories with Christmas in mind.

Gittisham hoteliers shortlisted for award

TWO Gittisham hoteliers are on the The Independent Hotel Show Independent Hotelier of the Year Award 2013 shortlist.

Ken and Ruth Hunt (pictured), who run Combe House, have been shortlisted alongside just seven other nominees.

The winner will be announced at an awards ceremony in London on October 30th during The Independent Hotel Show.

Ruth said: "Golly gosh! We didn't think we were known outside of the South West."

Ken added: "Receiving the nomination is testimony to the professionalism, dedication and sheer hard work of all our staff."

'Magnificent Seven' mine hosts to retire after 21 years in village pub

THE LANDLORDS of an East Devon village pub that's been in every edition of CAMRA's Good Beer Guide since 1974 are retiring

The New Inn at Kilmington is one of only seven pubs in Britain included by CAMRA in all 41 editions of its Good Beer Guide.

Brian Jenkins, 62, and his wife, Denise, 59, have run the New Inn for just over 21 years, as tenants of Palmers Brewery of Bridport in Dorset.

Brian and Denise's success as one of CAMRA's 'Magnificent Seven' is particularly impressive because the pub was destroyed by fire in 2004 and shut for nearly a year for rebuilding.

"We only had what we stood up in and that was it, everything else was gone," said Brian.

"It was devastating," said Denise. "It plays on my mind now when I start thinking about it."

But Brian said the fire – caused by spontaneous combustion in the thatched roof – was also "a godsend" as it enabled Palmers to bring the pub firmly into the 21st century, with new features like the "excellent toilets with disabled access" praised by CAMRA in the current Good Beer Guide.

Other big changes over the last two decades have been the increased sales of wine and food. "Pubs can't be without food these days," said Denise.

Reputation

Brian added: "When we first came here, food was about 10 per cent of the turnover, it's now nearly 50 per cent, and wine, I used to sell maybe a bottle a week, and I'm now doing thousands of bottles a year."

But it's Palmers' fine ale that has given the New Inn its exceptional reputation for quality.

"I've never felt it to be a burden of responsibility, it's just something you do, things have to be right," said Brian, who served for 24 years with the forces and was a Regimental Sergeant Major.

"It's the military upbringing," he laughed. "If

MAGNIFICENT TWO: Brian and Denise Jenkins are retiring from The New Inn at Kilmington in Devon, which is owned by Palmers Brewery and has been included in every edition of the CAMRA Good Beer Guide something's got to be done, it's done."

His top tips? "Keep your beer lines clean, do them every week and do them properly, and make sure you've got the right-sized barrelage in for your turnover, it's as simple as that. If you change a barrel every day, then your beer's fresh every day."

"Always have the right glass for the right beer, and make sure they're clean."

Palmers tenanted trade director Jayson Perfect said: "It's a great honour to own one of the Magnificent Seven pubs. Brian and Denise have been fantastic tenants and I hope they enjoy a happy retirement. Our new landlords, Chris and Becky, are committed to keeping up the listing and making the pub even better in the future."

After they retire in October, Brian and Denise are planning to enjoy a series of holidays around the UK and Europe. One of the reasons they chose to go in October, soon after the publication of the Good Beer Guide 2014, was to give their successors the benefit of being in the Guide, and the best possible chance of staying in there. CAMRA members will have months to satisfy themselves that standards are being kept up.

Denise and Brian will also be returning, after giving the new landlords chance to settle in.

"We've got a house about a mile and a half away and this is going to be our local," said Denise. "She'll be the chauffeur so I can get in a few beers," joked Brian.

Catering van vandalised

A CATERING van, parked in the Whitefields area of Wilmington, was vandalised at some point between 10.30pm on Sunday, September 15th and 8.30am the following day.

PCSO Amanda Wooster said: "A black Landrover with an 05 plate was seen acting suspiciously in the area along with a purple sports car with blacked out windows."

"If anyone has any information please ring 101." The crime reference is KA/13/503

■ A BLUE Stunted Extreme child's scooter was stolen in Chardstock in the late afternoon of Friday, September 6th.

PCSO Andy Trott said: "It was seen being placed into the back of a dark green van near village hall and play park."

Anybody with information is asked to call 101, quoting crime number KA/13/490.

CHAMPION CAT COMES FROM AXMOUTH

FOUR year-old Axmouth cat Wellmar Balti left South Western Counties Cat Club 61st Championship Show with a haul of trophies.

The show was held in Taunton on Saturday September 28th and Wellmar Balti was crowned Best Overall Exhibit in Show.

Her proud owner, Patricia Absalom, summed up by saying: "She won her Premiership as a neuter and Best of Breed."

"She then went on to become Best British Neuter and, finally, Best Overall Exhibit in Show out of 250 cats."

"She was showered with wonderful prizes and rosettes."

Coffee and bingo

MUSBURY Village Hall will be the scene of a coffee morning in aid of Macmillan Cancer Care on Wednesday, October 9th from 10.30am-12noon. One of the organisers, Kay Short, said: "We are hoping for a good crowd. There will be a short bingo session and a quiz to entertain while drinking coffee. Cakes will be on sale."

After years of waiting, time for solution to Axminster eyesores

■ HERE we go again. The George Hotel in Axminster is up for sale once more!

Some time ago it was reported that something was going to be done about it but nothing has happened so it's up for sale yet again.

It sounds very much as if this is going to go just the same way as the other eyesores – namely Websters and, as for the flower shop which used to be next to it, talk about a disgrace! Speaking of Websters, while the painting is very good, it was never finished, so what a complete waste of money that was.

Complete demolition of all these structures could result in a very long-awaited answer to these problems.

There could be a nice roundabout where the George now stands with small shrubs enhancing the safety and visual approach to the town centre by motorists and visitors, whilst also improving traffic space and visibility.

Websters could be made into a car park which could hold the market on Thursdays, leaving the Square open to enable traffic to move freely in the town centre, whilst further improving traffic space and visibility.

It is about time something happened after all these years of waiting!

Christian Aid supporting Syrian refugees

■ WITH the dreadful plight of the innocent victims of the Syrian conflict, there seems so little we can do individually.

We can certainly pray for peace but there is still more we can do.

The Christian Aid Group in Seaton has been raising funds as usual for the poorest of the world, but this year it includes special fundraising for the Syrian refugees.

Christian Aid continues to send money to help those countries like the Lebanon, North Iraq and Jordan, which have had the difficult task of caring for these refugees, and making sure the funds actually reach the people in need.

We are extremely grateful to Pecorama for collecting £320 for the Syrian Refugee Appeal during the school summer holidays. This has helped our Christian Aid appeal to raise more than £1,330 so far this year. Our thanks go to all who have contributed so generously.

There will be further opportunities to give this autumn when we invite the people of Seaton to our three Souper Lunches for Christian Aid. They include a choice of soup, roll, butter, cheese, apple pie or trifle (cream optional) and a cup of tea or coffee for only £3.50 at the United Reform Hall, Cross Street, Seaton on Fridays, October 4th, November 1st and December 6th, 12noon to 1.30pm, including Fairtrade and bring and buy stalls.

Come along at 11am and have a coffee first for only 50 pence and an early browse. There will be a Silver Appeal for Syrian Refugees.

The enjoyment in sharing a meal with others helps give a message of hope and encouragement to those so much in need of both. Come along and thank you for caring.

JANET LANG,
Organiser, Seaton Christian Aid Group

Send a gift this Christmas

■ THE adverts are already tempting us to buy expensive gadgets and gifts for Christmas.

But there are destitute children in many lands who will have nothing to enjoy this year unless you fill a brightly covered shoebox with useful and beautiful surprises that will last in their hearts forever.

Bring me half-filled or even empty boxes – whatever you can as soon as you can. You will find detailed leaflets in our porch at 55 Scalwell Lane, Seaton or phone 01297 22310.

This year we have been asked to donate £3 per box toward the ever-increasing carriage costs please.

It will be the happiest thing you have ever done at Christmastide.

Sidford Big Breakfast a huge success

■ THE Big Breakfast held at Sidford Social Hall on September 21st was a great success raising a sum of £900 in aid of the FORCE cancer charity.

We are very grateful to all who supported us and to all the helpers.

Particular thanks go to Sarah Mallett of Fort Café, The Esplanade, Sidmouth, and Sally Mortimer who were the "A Team" in the kitchen, cooking over 95 full breakfasts plus other assorted items.

Not only did Sarah do the cooking but she also donated a large percentage of the food.

Many thanks once again.

Museum welcomes constructive criticism

■ UP until Seaton holiday camp closed, Seaton Museum visitor numbers, which dated back to 1995, varied between 4,500 and 6,000.

When the camp closed to be replaced by the Tesco store, visitor numbers dropped to between 2,000 and 2,500.

■ CORRECTION: Apologies for last week misspelling the word "blame" in the headline of a letter. The headline should have read "Museum should not blame

Was this just a coincidence or maybe something else?

May I remind D. Hislop (last week's letters) constructive criticism is always welcome and we always welcome positive ideas.

Ted Gosling,
Museum Curator and first Freeman of Seaton.

"Tesco" and the author, Doug Hislop, felt this mistake detracted from the effect of the letter. Apologies for this typing error.

Pulman's View

churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

The Reverend Ian Kirby, Axminster, writes: The United Reformed Church appointed a new Moderator of the South Western Synod last year and the Reverend Ruth Whitehead arrived in the synod in July from pastoral ministry in Cambridgeshire.

She chairs her first meeting of synod on October 12th at Bridgewater where representatives from local churches in the synod will gather. Apart from this, the churches and ministers of the synod have been asked to begin a process of continuous review of their lives together, as they seek to discover the work that God is calling them to.

The recent world news has been particularly grim, of course. Coming so soon after the Syrian crisis. We reflect on the aftermath of the attacks in Nairobi and Peshawar, and reflect on what the right response might be. We recall that Christianity has had blood-thirsty periods in its history, notably the events that gave John Foxe his Book of Martyrs.

Archbishop Justin Welby has urged Christians to pray for the terrorists who brutally killed at least 67 in Nairobi. He said that 'the captors' should be remembered in people's prayers, so they can see that violence 'won't have the last word'. He added that this is in line with Jesus Christ's teachings and that he had personally prayed for all involved in the mass killings.

In Devon, Anglican lay ministers, known as readers, attended their annual licensing service in Exeter Cathedral on Saturday October 5th at 2.30pm. Readers who have completed training were also licensed.

To-day (October 8th) Feniton History Group are showing the restored Acland Films in church with an 8pm start.

Harvest festivals continue in many parishes often with gifts of food being received for those in need; look out for local posters for churches and times of services.

Exeter Diocese is producing a colour, glossy, 2014 Diocesan Calendar/Annual Report. Funded by advertising, copies are coming to all parishes and may be bought in bundles of five for £10 plus £4.90 P&P.

We should celebrate the blessing of owning and reading our own bible on Bible Sunday - October 27th or any Sunday of choice - and help others in the world to receive God's word for themselves. Do download free resources from the Bible Society.

Those concerned with church fabric will be glad to know that from October 1st grants for heritage buildings will include work on organs, clocks, bells and ropes. Claim procedure is simplified, and speeded up.

The EXPOSED campaign challenges the global church, businesses and governments to expose global corruption. This October, Christians will raise their voices in a united response against corruption. Every year millions goes missing through mismanagement, illicit business practices and poor governance.

The Real Advent Calendar is coming soon from the Meaningful Chocolate Company. It is Fairtrade, see <http://realadvent.co.uk/> - proceeds Children's Society.

GILLIAN Perrow started life in Middlesex, but nowadays spends much of her time in Axminster. She is heavily involved with Axminster Health & Wellbeing Centre, having held a variety of posts there over the years.

● WHERE were you born, where did you grow up and where did you go to school?

I was born in Isleworth, Middlesex, and went to Spring Grove Central School.

● TELL us about your professional background.

I was a residential social worker and then became a Relate couple counsellor, family counsellor, therapeutic mediator and group trainer. I worked for Relate for 22 years and now have a private counselling practice in Axminster and Yeovil, specialising in couples, individuals and families. I enjoy helping people in their growth and change.

● FOR how long have you been involved with Axminster Health & Wellbeing Centre, and in which capacities?

I've been involved with the centre from the beginning. I started as a counsellor and therapist representative. I was invited to become a director/trustee many years ago and then became chair of trustees, and these are the positions I hold today. In addition, I am the contract therapist for counselling.

● TELL us about Axminster Health & Wellbeing Centre and what it offers.

The Axminster Health & Wellbeing Centre is primarily a safe haven for people to come and gain a wider understanding of the benefits of having a healthy mind and body.

The centre offers a wide range of complementary therapies, healing, health talks, an extensive library, a food bank, an adult reading programme and a new cancer information café starting in November. The centre has a calm atmosphere and people are welcome to drop in for a chat. I have witnessed many people coming to the centre for help, and it is wonderful to see them transform. Over the years so many different people have volunteered at the centre bringing with them a wealth of experience and compassion.

● HOW would you like the centre to develop over the next five years?

Ideally, I would love to see the centre grow into a health and wellbeing hub for the community where a wide variety of services can be accessed by individuals, and by both private and public organisations. I believe taking responsibility for your own health can be extremely empowering. I would like to see the centre supporting people in every stage of their life process, from conception to death. I would like to see the centre supporting the NHS more, with the NHS referring people for complementary therapies and mindfulness courses.

● WHICH was your dream job when growing up, and why?

Dream jobs were not high on my agenda because I was more fascinated with people, travelling, and exploring new cultures. The wealth of experience gained from pursuing this led me to a career in counselling, which is my dream job.

● WHICH is your favourite holiday destination, and why?

I don't have a specific destination, I love being in the sun in untouched, wild, remote places either with people I feel at ease with or by myself.

● WHAT makes you happy?

Being with my children who I adore. Being active and relaxing with like minded people who understand, accept and inspire each other. Being in my garden and long walks in nature.

● WHAT makes you angry or not so happy?

I think anger is a strong word. I do not condone discrimination and injustice.

● IF you won an absurd amount of money, how would you spend it?

I would give some of the money for further research into complementary therapy and healing, to assist in working hand in hand with traditional medicine so that people would have a more informed choice about their health and wellbeing. I would also give money to education, in order to teach mindfulness to teachers, pupils, parents and support workers.

Carpets relaunch underlay product

AXMINSTER Carpets has announced the relaunch of its premium underlay product, Axfelt.

The production of the product will take place at a new plant at the Axminster factory.

The new product is the result of extensive and rigorous trials over the last few months, which have resulted in the thickness of the product being maintained but the roll shortened to make it lighter and easier to carry.

In addition, the new product is manufactured by using recycled materials - including old carpets and rubber tyres.

Axminster Carpets MD Josh Duffield said: "We're very excited about bringing the production of our underlay to our factory in Axminster.

"Since April we have been rolling out a strong growth plan and the set-up of underlay production is another business target we've hit in a short space of time.

"We have always manufactured our carpets using natural British wool and our range is made entirely in the UK using traditional methods.

"Our Axfelt underlay product complements our high quality carpets and creates a long lasting base - allowing consumers to enjoy our carpets for years with the added benefits of increased insulation and lower fuel bills."

Sector Lane housing development underway

THE Homes and Communities Agency (HCA) has welcomed progress on the housing development at Sector Lane in Axminster.

What used to be Axminster's principal football ground, is now a building site and almost unrecognisable.

It is part of a dual development which also includes the creation of new facilities for Axminster Town FC, off Chard Road.

Developer Devonshire Homes is working on both sites at the same time thanks to a £1.5m grant from HCA's Get Britain Building programme, which has enabled progress on the previously stalled dual project.

Devonshire Homes welcomed HCA's acting head of area Steve Jackson to both sites on September 18th.

Devonshire Homes interim MD Steve Russell guided Mr Jackson around and said: "It was a pleasure to show the HCA around the site and also to visit the construction work at the new club facilities, where the clubhouse timber frame has been erected.

"The HCA provided invaluable support in our bid to secure substantial funding from the Get Britain Building programme and today they have been able to see the development progressing as a result of their commitment."

The funding is supporting the first phase of 43

new homes at Sector Lane, eight of which will be affordable, while also unlocking the development of new club facilities for Axminster Town Football Club at the new site.

Mr Jackson's first comment at Sector Lane was: "It's a massive transformation from the last time, when we came to approve the investment."

Having had a proper look around, he added: "I am delighted to see the development moving forward.

"This is an important project for us, as it supports the delivery of new homes which are needed in this area as well as unlocking the development of new facilities which the football club has been working hard to bring to the town.

"It's good to see that the Get Britain Building programme is once again delivering new homes, community facilities and safeguarding jobs in our area through projects such as this."

● ANNOUNCED as part of the government's Housing Strategy in November 2011, Get Britain Building is supporting house builders by providing access to development finance, unlocking more than 15,000 new homes across the country by December 2014, and protecting and creating thousands of jobs.

Summer school first

FORTY-two new Year Seven students and five Axe Valley Community College staff have taken part in their first summer school.

The summer school was held from September 2nd-6th under a government-funded programme aimed at aiding transition from primary to secondary school.

Students enjoyed breakfast at the college before getting to grips with various taster sessions.

There were 90-minute sessions in maths, English, science and art.

College spokesperson Liz Slade said: "For example, science teacher Miss Tones captivated her audience by setting fire to some bubbles (which were held in the hands of a very brave student) and then students had to create chemical rainbows in test tubes.

"After lessons, students were either transported to Weycroft Mill to take part in woodland skills, archery, a laser quest and kayaking - or stayed at college to complete art work and take part in team building activities. On the last day, the whole group travelled to Splashdown in Poole, where they spent the time going down slides and tunnels or relaxing in the jacuzzi."

Open day at Coombefield

COOMBEFIELD Veterinary Hospital held its open day over the weekend.

Lucky competition winner Selena Short was presented with a voucher worth £1,000 to go on holiday with her dog, Otter.

Special visitor Chewy 'the giant dog' turned up on a trailer with Jennifer Emerson from sponsors Novartis to present her with the prize.

Primary school children in Axminster were invited to enter a portrait of their pets in a competition to help brighten up the waiting room.

The winning pictures were chosen from lots of colourful entries by children at Axminster Community Primary and St Mary's Catholic Primary Schools.

The talented winning children were presented with their prizes by veterinary surgeon Tim Lawrence, the senior partner at Coombefield.

■ Ashby, a six-year-old labrador who recently had an operation at Coombefield to remove a toy bone stuck between his stomach and small intestine, with owner Mr Maybury

EXETER School is a selective day school for boys and girls aged 7 to 18. It is a lively and inspiring place offering an impressive range of academic subjects and extra-curricular activities. The school is especially proud of its excellent Music and Drama departments and a number of major performances are staged throughout the year. The 25-acre site is well equipped with a range of first-class sports facilities. In addition to the large playing fields, astroturf arena and all-weather courts, it also boasts a heated outdoor swimming pool and a sports hall with squash courts, climbing wall, fitness suite and dance studio.

Senior pupils can join the school's Combined Cadet Force and take part in outdoor pursuits such as the Ten Tors Challenge and the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme.

Exeter School has an excellent record of academic success, which includes 35 Oxbridge offers in the last 5 years. In the Summer 2013 public exams, 56% of A Level and 80.3% of GCSE grades were A* or A.

New Cancer Information Cafe for East Devon

The Axminster Health & Wellbeing Centre would like to announce a new Cancer Information Café starting on Monday 4th November 1:30 - 4:30pm. The Café will be for anyone who is or has been affected by cancer. The Café will be for users to explore informative self help materials from organisations in East Devon, Devon and the borders. Information will be supplied by Macmillan, Hospiscare, FORCE and Cancer Research as well as a library which will be open Monday to Friday and will run alongside our existing library. There will be light refreshments and access to WiFi if people need to research more. The Café will have trained Macmillan volunteers if anyone needs to chat or require more support. The Café will also have information on local support groups and events going on in the area to give an informed choice on what's right for you.

We already have volunteers but we are always looking for more and there is still time to be part of the Macmillan training day on Saturday 26th October. If anyone is interested in volunteering for the Café or being part of the Macmillan training then please get in touch on 01297 32331 or drop into the Centre. This year the Café will examine ways of fundraising to give people living with cancer the opportunity to have Complementary Therapy at the Centre. Look out on the website for any guest speakers or talks that will be held at the Café by visiting www.axminsterwellbeing.com

Competition

The Café is holding two competitions: A happiness story competition for the under 10s and a design your own logo competition for the under 16s. All winners of the happiness story competition will have their story displayed in the Café and first prize will receive a selection of story books. For the logo competition under 16s can design a new logo and the winner will have their logo used and receive a £20 voucher of their choice. All entries cost 50p with proceeds going towards new tables and chairs for the Café. Entry forms can be picked up from the Centre or can be emailed. Good luck and all entries to be in by Sunday 20th October.

COMPLEMENTARY THERAPIST OPENINGS

In addition, the Centre is opening its doors for more complementary therapists applications. If you are a therapist and looking for premises why not pop into the Centre for a look around. We are currently looking for an Osteopath, Shaitsu practitioner, and Homeopath. Openings are not limited to these therapies and we would love to hear from any therapists who are ready to make a move into a well established centre. Room hire is as little as £5 per hour for our beautiful new therapy rooms.

The Food Bank

The Food Bank would like to thank all the community for their sterling efforts over the last 6 months and the difficulties Axminster has faced. Since its opening in September has helped over 800 individuals through varying crises. The Food Bank is always looking for volunteers and we welcome any new faces.

Read Easy

Our adult reading programme is going from strength to strength in the Axminster area. The programme is for adults who would like to learn how to read or to improve their reading ability. All tutors and materials are free with this project and anyone interested should contact Sheila on Monday pm, Tuesday am or Thursday pm on 01297 32331.

Axminster Counselling

COUNSELLING can help individuals, couples and families to see how they may be repeating types of behaviour and thoughts which impact on themselves and others. Many of us are unaware of what emotional and physical blocks we create in our daily lives. Counselling with Gillian provides an opportunity to talk through issues in a clear, direct and honest way. During a counselling session you will be given tools to use in your life in order to appreciate and be kind to yourself. From this experience we can work towards the changes you require in order to recognise and transform behaviours, accept change and move on.

Traditional Acupuncture

WHY NOT JOIN THE STOPTOBER CAMPAIGN?

Stop smoking the easy way with traditional acupuncture

THE treatment uses auricular (ear) acupuncture which is a tried and tested technique for addictions. This is a standard protocol which has been in use for 70 years and has been found to have at least a 90% success rate.

The treatment involves inserting 5 tiny needles in each ear, which are left in place for 40 minutes. The treatment is cumulative over 5 days. Clients are given a herbal tea blend which supports the treatment and which they can use at home.

The treatment can be given one to one or in a group. It is delivered as a 5 day course, with clients coming to my clinic for 1 hr every day – usually Monday to Friday. This allows on-going support to be given during the treatment.

Massage is a hands-on, holistic method of health care.

Massage therapists use hands-on techniques on the muscles, fascia, tendons, ligaments and joints to bring relief from everyday aches, reduce stress, increase relaxation, address feelings of anxiety and tension, and aid general wellness.

Massage therapy also treats specific physical and medical conditions by releasing muscle tension, restoring muscle and postural balance, increasing circulation and improving tissue nutrition. Therapeutic massage can effectively treat long term chronic pain, motor vehicle accident rehabilitation, athletic injuries, repetitive strain injuries and nerve impingements.

It can also be used in support of other therapies to assist in the rehabilitation of muscular injuries i.e. massage can improve the effectiveness and comfort level of chiropractic or physiotherapy care.

Massage can also be an important part of a preventative maintenance program. For long term health, consider a maintenance plan of monthly treatments. This approach works well when you are at a level of health that you want to maintain. The monthly massages take care of minor aches before they become painful problems.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

10% of revenue made from this page will be donated to a Breast Cancer charity

Britain's biggest, pinkest fundraising day is back for 2013! It's your chance to invite friends and colleagues to join forces, have fun and do something incredible for women with breast cancer.

All you have to do is grab something pink, wear it on Friday 25 October 2013 and donate £2 to Breast Cancer Campaign. But don't be alone in your pink glory - with our ideas for wear it pink day at the office, in school and at home you can make sure everyone joins in.

So let's get started! Tell everyone about wear it pink. Send an email around, tell the school in assembly, share it on your work intranet, invite the girls round for a pamper night just for wear it pink. Get your own wear it pink posters by registering and stick them all over the place!

REFLECTIONS HAIR & BEAUTY

How do I check my breasts?

There's no right or wrong way to check your breasts. Try to get used to looking at and feeling your breasts regularly. Remember to check all parts of your breast, your armpits and up to your collarbone.

What changes should I look and feel for?

Nobody knows your body like you do, so you're the best person to notice any unusual changes.

- Changes in size or shape.
- Changes in skin texture such as puckering

- or dimpling.
- Inverted nipple.
- A lump or thickening of breast tissue.
- Redness or a rash on the skin/around the nipple.
- Discharge from one or both nipples.
- Constant pain in breast or armpit.
- Swelling in armpit/around collarbone.

THE FACTS

The number of people being diagnosed with breast cancer is increasing, but the good news is survival rates are improving. This is probably because of more targeted treatments, earlier detection and better breast awareness.

The biggest risk factor, after gender, is increasing age – 80% of breast cancers occur in women over the age of 50.

Breast cancer also affects men, but it's rare – around 300 men are diagnosed each year.

Breast cancer is not one single disease there are several types of breast cancer.

Not all breast cancers show as a lump, and not all breast lumps are breast cancer.

Less than 10% of breast cancer runs in families, so having someone in your family with breast cancer doesn't necessarily mean your own risk is increased.

National Home Security Month

October 2013

New Home Security Initiative is Set to Combat Rise in Winter Burglaries

This week marks the start of National Home Security Month (NHSM), a nationwide initiative, supported by Yale, that runs throughout October and is designed to create awareness around the importance of home security.

RECENT statistics show that burglaries increase by up to 20 per cent when the clocks change, as criminals take advantage of the darker evenings.

To combat the rise in burglary, NHSM will feature a series of hints and tips to highlight the ways you can keep your homes and families safe during the darker evenings.

The campaign will feature five weekly themes, with each focusing on a different aspect of home security.

This week, crime figures are under the spotlight, as people are urged to become more aware of potential risk in their local area. To support this, Yale is offering a free Crime Watcher app that displays burglary statistics within a mile of your home, during a one-month period.

Door and window security will provide the focus for week two. Many burglars often avoid smashing windows but attempt to force the frame itself, so the campaign will highlight the importance of ensuring all windows are fitted with at least one appropriate lock.

People are more susceptible to fraud during winter, and especially around Christmas, so the third week will examine the best ways to protect valuables. This will be followed by a focus on outside protection in week four, highlighting the importance of securing sheds and garages during the darker months.

NHSM will conclude with a look at the latest security gadgets and future home security technology including digital door locks, which offer both convenience and peace of mind.

The NHSM Facebook and Twitter channels will be supplying daily tips for keeping homes safe and secure during the dark nights. For more information visit www.homesecuritymonth.com, search for /NHSM13 on Facebook or follow @NHSM13 on Twitter.

Dark nights are on the way!

DURING the winter months (October to March), monthly offending levels can be up to one and a half times higher when the hours of daylight are reduced.

Although National Home Security Month runs the length of October, we believe it is vital homeowners secure their homes from September onwards, when 'dark nights' are a real threat.

With dark nights providing useful cover for burglars, you should make sure you always have a working home alarm system. Not only do burglar alarms act as an effective method of alerting neighbours to the presence of an intruder, but alarm siren boxes on the front of houses also act as a visual deterrent to potential thieves, which is in itself is often enough to prevent a burglary.

There are also often more social events to attend over the darker months, such as Christmas dos and New Year's Eve parties, but you shouldn't let your fun be ruined by compromising your safety. Although you should avoid walking home alone at night or being left on your own at parties, these situations can still occur and that's why it's crucial to take a personal attack alarm with you when you go out.

The clocks go back at 1am on Sunday 27th October, so make sure you're prepared...

Bolshoi Ballet and Metropolitan Opera screened at the Gateway

Performances of Eugene Onegin, Spartacus and The Nose will get Seaton showing

Ballet and Opera at The Gateway

THE Gateway at Seaton Town Hall has a fantastic line-up of screenings from the Metropolitan Opera and Bolshoi Ballet this month.

First off, on Wednesday, October 9th the Met Opera's Eugene Onegin will be screened live at 7pm.

Anna Netrebko and Mariusz Kwiecien star as the love-struck Tatiana and the imperious Onegin in Tchaikovsky's fateful romance. Deborah Warner's new production, set in the late 19th century, moves episodically from farmhouse to ballroom, with a powerful snowstorm providing the dramatic setting for the finale. Piotr Beczala is Lenski, Onegin's friend turned rival. Russian maestro Valery Gergiev conducts.

Eugene Onegin is a co-production of the Metropolitan Opera and English National Opera

On Sunday, October 20th it's the turn of the spectacular Bolshoi Ballet, when they perform Spartacus, at 4pm.

Captured by the Roman army, Spartacus and Phrygia are condemned to slavery. After becoming a gladiator, Spartacus foments a legendary rebellion.

This grandiose epic is one Khachaturian's most famous works, and has been considered one of the greatest ballets in the Bolshoi repertoire since the 1960s. A production with spectaclar choreography and scenery, Yuri Grigorovich's version remains the most critically acclaimed

Music is by Aram Khachaturyan, and Choreography by Yuri Grigorovich, and the show features the Bolshoi Principals, Soloists and Corps de Ballet

The Metropolitan Opera return for a second performance on Sunday, October 27th at 7pm when they perform The Nose.

William Kentridge stormed the Met with his inventive production of Shostakovich's opera, which dazzled opera and art lovers alike in its inaugural run in 2010. Now Paulo Szot reprises his acclaimed performance as a bureaucrat whose satirical misadventures in search of his missing nose are based on Gogol's comic story. Valery Gergiev conducts.

The Nose is a co-production of the Metropolitan Opera, the Festival d'Aix en Provence and the Opéra National de Lyon.

Tickets are priced at £15 in advance and £17.50 on the door for all the performances. Tickets are available from the box office at Seaton Town Hall, and by calling 01297 625699, or from Animal Botanical on Queen Street.

RIISING STAR TO HEADLINE CHARITY GIG

RIISING star Adam Sweet is the star attraction at the Music 4 Life night at the Mariner's Hall, Beer, on Saturday October 19th (9pm).

The 24-year-old, who was born in Lyme Regis, has developed huge following in the west country and beyond and is tipped for big things in the future.

"I don't think it will be long before Adam is a household name as he is that good," said Mandy Farmer, who is co-ordinating the music for the night.

"This is a great chance for local people to come and see him live on their doorstep."

Sweet will be joined by Beer-based 'Rock n' Roll Steve' and his band of old rockers, plus local duo The Barriers in what promises to be a great night.

"The music will be everything from the 60s to modern day and there will be plenty of opportunity to dance along," added Farmer.

The evening has been arranged to raise money for Cancer Research UK and the Mariners Hall and Farmer stressed that all the musicians were giving their services for free.

"It should be a great night and hopefully we will have a really good turnout," added Farmer.

Tickets cost £8 and are available in advance from Beer Post Office or Annie Boach (tel: 01297 21305) and will also be on sale on the night.

Harbron and Rutter to play Axmouth Church concert

ROB Harbron and Miranda Rutter will perform a concert of beautiful, uplifting and joyful English Folk music at St

Michael's Church in Axmouth this Saturday (October 12th) at 7.30pm. Tea and coffee will be served during the interval. Tickets cost £10 (£8 concessions) and are available by calling 01297 20679. All profits go to the church.

IT'S NOT very often you get the chance to watch a band and their tribute act counterparts in the same week, writes JAMES COLES.

But that was the opportunity that presented itself when I caught Fleetwood Mac at London's O2 Arena on Tuesday and Fleetwood Bac at Seaton Town Hall the following Saturday.

And whilst those star crossed lovers Lindsey Buckingham and Stevie Nicks seemed to have entered a new found era of cordiality and civility at The O2, their doppelgangers in Seaton hammed it up, with 'Stevie' giving her ex looks that could kill and making barbed comments on his solo career in comparison to her own.

I, for one, couldn't resist the latter's approach; there's only so much on-stage hand-holding you can take, especially when the songs (as fantastic as they are) have the sort of venomous bite as, say, 'Go Your Own Way'.

"Shacking up is all you wanna do"? I'm surprised the real Stevie didn't look as angry as her on-stage clone in Seaton.

No matter how many times she's heard it, no matter how much her bank balance has increased since it was written - I bet she still hates that song.

But, believe it or not, there's

Two nights with a legendary band more to Fleetwood Mac than The Stevie and Lindsey Show - although there's no denying the current line-up of the real band relies on that dynamic.

Not so with Fleetwood Bac. They returned to the Peter Green-led blues era of the band for three numbers, whilst the biggest difference was the inclusion of a carbon copy Christine McVie, making for a tribute to the much loved Rumours line-up of the band.

Such classics as 'You Make Loving Fun', 'Say You Love Me', 'Everywhere' and 'Little Lies' - unplayed by the real band for years - take the setlist to another level.

And although the following two nights at The O2 did include a much heralded cameo by the real Christine on 'Don't Stop' - her first appearances with the band for 15 years - there's no doubt the group's fans would be overjoyed if she returned to the band full time.

As for Fleetwood Bac, they seem to have nailed the sound, the choice of songs people want to hear and the right balance of on-stage banter and in-jokes. Still not sure on the afro wig option for 'Lindsey', but you can't have it all, I guess.

You can't genuinely compare an evening with one of the greatest bands of all time to a tribute group - no matter how good they are.

But I have to say Seaton Gateway offers a great night out. You'll get a better view than from just about any seat at The O2, the beer's cheaper (a lot cheaper) and you won't have to remortgage your house to get a ticket. Next time there's a band playing there - tribute or otherwise - go check it out.

Mariners' Hall to host The Shaghraun

REGULARS at Beer's Mariners' Hall will remember - in the Spring of 2012 - a hilarious production of Dion Boucicault's Irish comedy The Shaghraun, performed by actors from Crediton Arts Centre.

Four members of that cast return to the Hall on Thursday, October 24th to present An Evening with Mr Henry Mayhew.

In the 1850s, journalist Henry Mayhew interviewed hundreds of people who lived and worked on the mean streets of London - the Victorian underclass.

For them, there was no safety net - no benefit system, no Health Service.

If you failed, you died. Often, Mayhew roamed the crowded lanes and alleyways with his friend Charles Dickens, but where Dickens transformed the people he met for the purposes of his fiction, Mayhew was determined to tell it like it was. Like Dickens, he had a keen ear for comedy as well as tragedy, and his articles were hugely popular in his newspaper and were eventually published in book form as London Labour and the London Poor - still in print today.

He met prostitutes and pickpockets, mudlarks and mariners. He spoke with Mr Albert Tiffen, Bug Destroyer to Her Majesty Queen Victoria; and with Jimmy Shaw, owner of the finest rating pub in London Town. He talked with street traders and entertainers - sellers of wild birds and water cress, comedians and acrobats. Their stories, told in their own words, are moving, funny, sad, astonishing - sometimes all at the same time.

Carol Shorland, Victoria Crossley, Geoff Fox and Peter Hamilton will introduce audiences - through story, song and High Drama - to Sallemantro the Snake and Sword Swallower, a Shipwrecked Mariner who isn't what he seems to be, Fallen Women, the Malevolent and Melodramatic Secrets of Bluebeard's Castle, countless rats and one royal bed bug. And a lot more.

Tickets are £7, available from Rowland Molony on 01297 23607 and on the door. Show starts at 7.30 pm, there'll be a bar - all at The Mariners' Hall, Beer on Thursday, October 24th.

Choirs come together for concert with folk star

MEMBERS of the Axe Valley Community Choir, now in its fifth year, and the Charmouth and Bridport Rock and Pop Choir, a much more recent venture, are to be involved in an exciting venture with the well-known folk artist Charlie Dore with Julian Littman at the Electric Palace in Bridport. The new combined choir is to be known as the Electric Chorus, and will perform with Dore and Littman in Bridport on October 17th.

Award winning artist Charlie Dore is known for her bittersweet, subversive and original lyrics, sitting atop addictive melodies. From contemporary folk, through rootsy Cuban to her iconic hit 'Pilot of the Airwaves', the music refuses to be pigeon-holed. Her songs have been covered by the good and the great, from George Harrison through to Tina Turner, but her live concerts reveal that actually she keeps the best songs for herself.

Constantly swapping guitars, mandolin, ukelele and harmonium with Julian Littman, the energy is infectious. For their night at the Electric Palace they'll be joined by Edward's Electric Chorus - a mighty amalgam of two local choirs put together especially for the concert by choir leader Edward Jacobs. The choir will open the concert with their own set as well as joining Charlie for several songs.

A great evening of gorgeous harmonies is promised.

So good they're Bad!

MADNESS Tribute band Badness formed in 1994, Badness have been a market leader in the tribute and Ska scene, with their energetic show and a frontman that never fails to whip the audience into shape, you know you're in for a good night if Badness are on the bill.

"There aren't many tribute bands better than Badness. Their lead Suggs is perfect and the whole band musically tight, loud and all great musicians. they do Ska, Bad Manners et al too, as well as the nutty boys, so have an extensive range of material the can call on. Whatever they choose to perform is fine by me - they're fantastic and a benchmark to other tributes." - Stage Magazine Badness bring their nutty boys show to Axminster's Guildhall on Friday, November 1st from 8pm.

Support on the night comes from local band Kelly's Heroes, and a disco will be provided by Sound of Muzak.

Doors open at 7.15pm with music from 8pm. Tickets cost £12 in advance or £15 on the door, and are available from Archway Bookshop or by calling 01297 33595.

Variety Folk concert in Ottery

KATE Thomson, from Cornwall, and Mitch Norman, from Dorset, are just two of the guests in a variety concert of folk at Ottery St Mary's United Reformed Church on Saturday October 19th, starting at 7.30pm.

Classically trained singer and flautist Kate will be switching on her folk head to play songs by Kate Bush, Kate Rusby & Karine Powart, accompanying herself on piano as well as with guitar accompaniment from concert organiser Sue King.

Together they are the Celtic Folk duo Bedlam Bess.

Mitch, a well known Devon/Dorset folk performer, who has worked with Phil Beer and Show of Hands, will be playing music in his own jazzy/bluesy style.

Other artists appearing are new Sidmouth duo Misty Roses, who play and sing classic ballads with a Bossa nova feel, Devon/Dorset-based acapella traditional folk trio Two Hunts and a Gamble and the newly reformed Ruishon Concertina Band led by East Devon concertina player, Colin Campbell.

There is something for everyone in this concert, including a singalong at the end. Tickets are £5 from Ottery Tourist Information Centre, Paragon Books in Sidmouth and on the door. Refreshments will be available.

More information is available from Sue on 07854 822809.

JM DanceFit to launch new Zumba Gold class in October!

LOCAL Devon girl Johanna Morgan, founder of JM DanceFit, is thrilled to be launching her Zumba Gold fitness classes every Thursday at St Francis Church Hall, Woolbrook Road, Sidmouth, commencing with a free taster session on Thursday, October 10th. Johanna, a fully qualified Zumba instructor, is well known throughout East Devon for her popular Adult and Children's Zumba classes which are currently held in Sidford, Sidmouth, Seaton, Newton Poppleford and Exmouth.

The Zumba Gold programme, which has evolved from the Zumba concept, the country's most popular workout, provides modified, low-impact moves for those who would like to exercise at a more gentle pace, including people who are new to fitness or returning to fitness. The morning class will run from 11.15am - 12.15pm and is perfectly suited to those wishing to kick-start their day with an exhilarating, easy-to-follow, calorie-burning dance fitness-party. The Zumba fitness programme continues to move millions of people towards good health and happiness.

Johanna said: "I am thrilled to have the opportunity to use St Francis Church Hall to introduce JM DanceFit Zumba Gold to the local community. It is an ideal sized hall with a stage for easy viewing, and the location has the benefit of free parking. I am very excited to be launching this low-impact fitness programme at this venue and would like to offer a taster class, free of charge, on Thursday, October 10th."

RENTING tips for Tenants

With more and more people renting property in the private rented sector (PRS) Tenants are staying in properties for longer than ever before, with the average tenancy duration standing at 19.8 months*, many of us recognise the responsibilities, challenges, and irritants when moving in or out of a rented home.

Strictly Business Letting Agents are fully licensed members of the Association of Residential Letting Agents (ARLA) who have drawn together some helpful tips to ease the process for when you decide to move.

Susan Fitz-Gibbon, President of ARLA, said: "The PRS can offer fantastic flexibility for renters and by observing a few simple guidelines, tenants can ensure any move between properties is as smooth as possible, whether they use a Letting Agent or not. "Thinking about things like final bills ahead of moving day will ensure there are no loose ends for either tenant or landlord, and should reduce the potential for disputes further down the line. Remember that a clear, detailed inventory, which is agreed by tenant and landlord, can go a long way to easing the moving process. The provision of an inventory is not mandatory, so it's always worth checking if one is provided before signing for a new rented property."

ARLA has the following tips for renters moving home:

Stay in touch – Be sure to inform your bank, employer and friends that you're about to change address to avoid missing any important post or dropping off Christmas card lists! Leave your forwarding address and telephone number with the landlord/new tenant in case anything urgent is delivered to your previous home.

Settling up – Before you leave a rental property, make sure meter readings have been taken. This will allow them to send a final bill, which a landlord or agent may ask to see, along with proof of payment, before you can get your deposit returned!

Clearing out – Remember that a rented property should always be left clean and tidy at the end of the tenancy. If an inventory was taken when you moved in, be sure to check the state of individual rooms against this and move furniture back to its original position to reduce the chance of deposit disputes arising.

If a formal inventory wasn't compiled upon moving in, it is always prudent to leave a property as tidy as tidy as possible on moving out days and to take timed/dated photos as evidence of your clear-up efforts. Remember that any furniture that you have brought into a property must be removed at the end of the tenancy, unless otherwise agreed with the landlord. If you have to dispose of larger items, you may need to give the local council advance notice.

Come clean – Breakages happen, and often reporting any accidental damage to the Landlord / Agent before you've moved out could reduce the expense to you in the long term. If a landlord has to replace something at the last minute, the increased cost may be passed on to you in the form of a deposit deduction.

Once issues around costs are resolved and there is agreement on how much deposit will be released, it must be returned to you within 10 days of the tenancy ending. If a dispute remains on-going, your deposit will be held in the secure scheme it was put into at the start of the tenancy until this is ironed out.

Use the professionals – If you have any queries during a tenancy, or when you're considering moving to a new property, get the best possible advice from a qualified letting agent affiliated to a professional organisation like ARLA.

All ARLA licensed agents must adhere to a strict code of conduct, as well as offering client money protection and redress schemes, which protect all parties if things go wrong. Strictly Business and all ARLA member firms take full advantage of on going training to uphold the highest standards in lettings.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE*Lindy Parry - Podiatrist /
Chiropodist

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Autumn finance offers from Suzuki – small cars – small costs too

- VAT free campaign further extended until the end of 2013 on Swift, Splash and existing SX4 model.
- Swift 1.2 SZ2 three door on Driveplan PCP requires a deposit of just £159.

SUZUKI has more good news for its new car buyers this Autumn with a further extension of its VAT free campaign until the end of the year on all Swift models (except Sport) and Splash. In addition, two models of the outgoing SX4 are included; the 1.6-litre SZ3 and 1.6-litre SZ5 model equipped with four wheel drive.

The highly popular Alto SZ model is now available at £6,499, representing a £700 customer saving on list price. Splash 1.0-litre SZ2 is available from £7,999, Swift 1.2 SZ2 three door at £8,999 and the outgoing SX4 1.6 SZ3 available for £10,495.

Suzuki is also continuing its flexible PCP (Personal Contract Purchase) offers until the end of the year. Alto SZ is available for a deposit of £919 followed by 41 monthly payments of just £109 with the option to pay a final balloon payment of £2,352 at the end of the agreement to keep the car.

Alto offers very low cost of ownership with no annual road tax to pay, thanks to emissions of 99g/km, combined fuel consumption of 65.7mpg and an insurance group rating of 4E.

Moving up the small car range to the Splash SZ2 1.0-litre, the latest PCP offer requires a low deposit of £925 followed by 42 monthly payments of £139 and an optional final payment of £2,856.

The good news also continues for Swift buyers; as an example, the SZ2 three door at £8,999 remains available for a deposit of only £159 followed by 42 monthly payments of £159 and an optional payment of £3,535. The five door SZ2 is also available for £159 per month but requires a slightly higher deposit of £639. The PCP offers include the latest model Swift 1.3 DDiS which has CO2 emissions of just 101g/km and offers 72.4mpg on the combined cycle.

At the top of the Swift range, the award winning 1.6-litre Sport three door continues to be included in the low rate Driveplan PCP offer requiring a deposit of £1,409 followed by 42 monthly payments of £239.

D.A. LEE

WESTCOUNTRY JAGUAR

Independent Jaguar & Daimler Specialist

Tel: 01404 891999

Passionate about Jaguars for over 40 years

With 40 years of experience looking after Jaguars, Derek Lee has brought his skill and passion to Dunkeswell. Derek provides the ultimate care in Jaguar repair and maintenance at a competitive price on a one to one basis.

Derek has been based in London where in 1976 he left his employment with a Jaguar main dealer agent to become one of the founding partners in Leeborn - a family based business, which even then was centred around Jaguars. Having become the business's driving force, and developed it into a highly respected Jaguar and Daimler sales and service centre, the company then moved to new purpose designed, fully equipped premises and renamed the company D.A. Lee. Derek's workshops have been designed to his own specifications and equipped with the very latest in computer diagnostics so that the care and maintenance of Jaguars and Daimlers was simply the best.

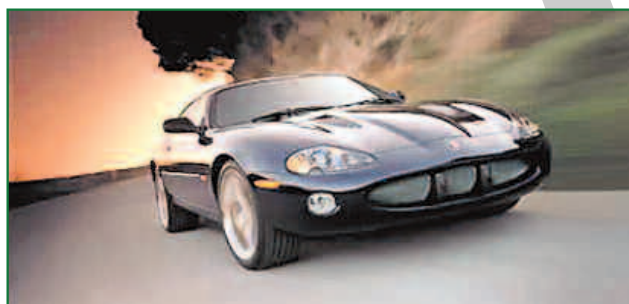

Derek Lee is not a man who accepts second best. He honed his winning formula in the competitive world of motorcycle racing. In six years Derek won more races than he can remember and three championships. Derek invested in the right equipment, employed the right people to tune and maintain his race bikes so that they were always in peak condition and absolutely reliable, he then added his own determination and drive. He is using that same formula to provide Jaguar and Daimler owners with the best independent maintenance and repair facility in the Westcountry.

Derek has looked after many customers from all parts of the globe - from all over England, Israel, Italy, Sweden, France and Scotland, some who still have their cars brought down to the brand new premises in Dunkeswell, like a Series II V12 Coupe which Derek has looked after for 37 years. Some of Derek's old London based customers having moved to the West Country, and after learning Derek is based in Dunkeswell, are coming back to re-establish service on their Jaguars.

Derek has the latest and best equipment money can buy in his workshop. From the computerised engine diagnostic and tuning unit to an air-conditioning maintenance machine, which also cares for the environment - no refrigerant is released into the atmosphere.

D.A. Lee is fully equipped to carry out all maintenance and repair work on Jaguar or Daimler cars. D.A. Lee offers the best independent and personal Jaguar service with all work being carried out to Jaguar specifications and schedules, using genuine Jaguar parts and top grade Oils. Regular reports keep you in touch with your car's progress and Derek will also consult you before carrying out any unexpected work. All this comes at a much cheaper price than a main dealer. Whatever your Jaguar needs, D.A. Lee is able to provide a service second to none.

Call Derek Lee now on 01404 891999 "Your one to one personal Jaguar emergency service".

CUSTOMER TESTIMONIALS

Hi Derek,

Just to say thank you for the recent work carried out on my Jag. Everything is perfect and as I was so impressed with your service I will, without hesitation, use you again and will also recommend you to others.

R&P.S, Axminster

Thank you for servicing the X type. Moving to another garage is always a risk, but I just wanted to say how impressed I was with the whole experience of moving away from a main dealer to you. From the very first phone call to getting the car back was fantastic, a level of service that one really only dreams of these days, certainly five star plus.

And to top it all, the cost of the service was realistic with no nasty surprises or unexpected expenses attached. It was a true pleasure to deal with a craftsman who knows his trade and is passionate about Jaguars. Thank you.

M.K. Honiton

Dear Derek Lee,

I write formally to put on record the excellent work done for maintenance and overhaul of my S Type Jaguar. The car feels like new again and is a pleasure to drive.

I cannot speak highly enough of the cleanliness and order, both of your workshops, and of my car when returned.

All the work was of a very high standard and was carried out with the manufacturers spare parts and at substantially lower charges than at a main dealer. I would not hesitate to recommend your work to other owners.

T.McC, Wick, Honiton

Dear Derek,

I was delighted with all aspects of the service I received from Derek Lee at West Country Jaguar. Derek's in-depth knowledge of all things Jaguar and his speedy and expert diagnosis of the problem I had with my X-Type left me a very, very satisfied customer indeed. This was in contrast to a number of visits to various Jaguar main dealers which have left me often frustrated and occasionally less than happy with the service I received. On return, my car was valeted to a high standard and has since been running beautifully. What more can you ask! All my own words!

M.M, Wilmington

Derek,

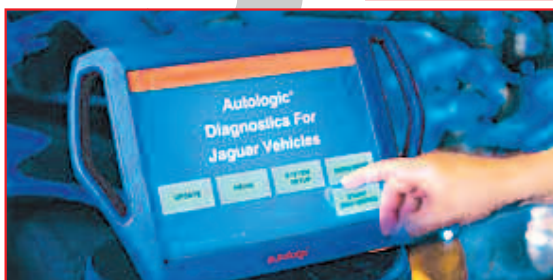

What have you done to my Car? After picking it up from you it's never run and felt so good, in all the time that I have owned it even when I first bought it!

No more noises or bangs that the main agent couldn't find and no more hesitation. I'm so pleased; I am going to keep it a few more years now.

Thanks again mate. Stuart, Chard (S Type Jaguar owned 9yrs)

Feniton goal machine rumbles on

NEWTOWN won the clash of the titans in the first round of the Graddon Vending Premier cup when they demolished fellow Devon & Exeter Premier leaders St MARTINS 4-0.

The Minster Park team began at a rush, but once behind they faded badly and by the break it was over at 3-0.

Two-goal Carl Lavis and Ashley Barker struck for Newtown who completed the job with a Kyle Hall goal in the second half.

FENITON stroled to a 9-1 win at LEE MOOR in Plymouth after scoring four goals in the first nine minutes. Dave O'Connor with a hat-trick and braces from Ben Ede and Jamie Doidge were more than the Plymouth team could cope with.

There was great delight at HEAVITREE UNITED where they ended a miserable start to the season with a 4-1 win against NORTH MOLTON. Two goal Ben Henderson, Dylan Dare and Chris Yelland won it for Heavies.

WILLAND ROVERS are through after their 3-1 win at CLYST VALLEY where all the goals came in extra time. Ed Williams was the Valley scorer.

BEER ALBION won a cracking game against WINDMILL 5-3, and TIVERTON TOWN also made it into round 2 with a 3-0 victory at TOTNES & DARTINGTON.

TOPSHAM TOWN were beaten 3-0 at home by BRIKHAM, and SEATON TOWN failed to raise a team to make the journey to TORRIDGESIDE.

BOW AAC who really enjoy their Firewatch Devon Senior cup campaigns, having won the trophy a year and a half ago, blew PAIGNTON VILLA away 10-0 with Dean Jones and Kieran Stone both cracking hat-tricks.

Louie Kinch and Will Hawking both completed doubles.

ELMORE will also fancy a good run after their 8-1 romp at AXMOUTH UNITED where Jordan Copp netted a treble, and Jesse Howe scored twice.

WESTEXE ROVERS were 8-0 winners against SHAMWICKSHIRE Josh Dryhurst and Johnny Lacey weighing in with two goals each.

HONITON TOWN, currently in brilliant form, were too good for visiting BARNSTAPLE winning 7-2.

EXMOUTH AMATEURS went into a penalty shoot out against STOKE GABRIEL at 5-5, but then lost the spotkick competition 3-2. CHERITON FITZPAINE needed extra time to win their tie at KINGSKERSWELL & CHELSTON 3-2, and PINHOE hammered four goals in extra time to get rid of NORTH TAWTON 6-2. Paul Furzer, Liam Ward and Luke Phillips scored for the Pins before Lewis Minto grabbed a late hat-trick.

HATHERLEIGH TOWN won their derby game against HOLSWORTHY 4-2, DAWLISH UNITED won a tight match against NOVA HOMES 2-1 and EXWICK VILLA needed extra time at BICKLEIGH to get through 3-2 on penalties after the two teams had ended up 2-2.

CHULMLEIGH made it into the next round after winning 4-1 against TEDBURN ST MARY, the UNIVERSITY won 3-2 on penalties at COLYTON having drawn 2-2.

LYMPSTONE were comfortable 6-0 winners at COMBE MARTIN, and UPOTTERY ran out 5-0 victors at home to ROBOROUGH.

There were some high scores in the Devon Intermediate Cup. HENRYS CRONIES gave PRIORY a two goal start then hit back to win 11-2. Stewart Tyrer and Ryan Burrows both notched hat-tricks.

Cup holders MILLWEY RISE routed BEER ALBION 10-0, and LANGDON cruised through 8-2 against ELMORE.

Alex Simpson scored twice for BOW AAC in their 3-0 win at EAST BUDLEIGH, and goals from Brian Redwood and Adam Bond earned UPLWMAN a 2-1 victory over LAPFORD.

In the League EXETER UNIVERSITY edged HATHERLEIGH TOWN 2-1 in the only Premier game played.

BEACON KNIGHTS won a tight match against SIDBURY UNITED 3-2 in Division One with Matt Board scoring twice, and WELLINGTON also won 3-2 against WITHERIDGE who claim they had all the game.

ALPHINGTON were 4-1 winners at NEWTON POPPLEFORD but Luke Osmond who scored an equaliser for the Alphas then broke his leg.

NEWTOWN went top of Division Three with a 4-1 win against SIDMOUTH, Dan Levertown, Ryan Foster, Luke Jones and an own goal making up their score-sheet.

James Carter slammed a hat-trick as the UNIVERSITY beat EXMOUTH AMATEURS 9-1.

The LORDS XI scored twice from Juliam Wills in the closing stages to win their Division Four game against NEWTOWN having been twice behind from goals by Ryan Pearson and Lloyd Colman.

Phil Greenslade notched a hat-trick for MORCHARD BISHOP in their 4-3 win against AMORY PARK RANGERS in Division 5.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

NEWLY formed Seaton Sparrowhawks under 8s battled out 2-2 draws against Exeter Crusaders and Exeter Dynamos at the weekend.

Leo Gribble (two goals) and Aaron Hale had great games in midfield, working hard defensively and attacking with flair in a tireless display.

George Gait (one goal) played in every position on the pitch, displaying solid goalkeeping, tackling, and was always a threat going forward.

Lewis Gorman completed the scoring with a fine run and shot.

The whole team should be proud of the way they are developing.

After a goal less first-half strikes from Matty Vincent and Tony Pinder clinched a hardfought win for Seaton Under 15s in the local derby at Colyton.

The hosts grabbed a late consolation. Seaton Man-of-the-Match was Cameron Gould.

Seaton Town U10 continued their excellent start to the season win a 4-1 win at Honiton.

The first-half saw some lively early exchanges with both keepers producing good saves.

Seaton struck just before the break through Jack White.

The lead was doubled after the turnaround

When Billy Gait crossed for debutant Jack Moore to score.

Josh Tate continued the great start to his Seaton playing career with another pacey performance, well rewarded with the third goal.

Gait capped a good second-half to make it 4-0 before a deserved late consolation by Honiton, which was well deserved for there hard work.

Seaton Supporters player of the match went to Casey Gibbons, the coaches award to Jack Moore.

Seaton Town Under 12s put in a good team performance to clinch a 4-1 win over Crediton United in their first home match of the season.

Seaton started the first half strongly and Jamie Davey struck the crossbar, the ball rebounded back to Edward Kenworthy who opened the scoring.

The hosts scored again when William Hellier's well

Reece McCabe then scored twice to extend the lead to 4-0 at half time.

In the second-half Crediton, kicking downhill, had a lot of the play and they grabbed a late consolation from the penalty spot.

Unbeaten Seaton Town U14s moved to the top of the table with a hard-fought 2-1 win over Crediton.

Oliver Brown and Kieran Daniels scored the goals in an impressive display from several players in particular Ben Turley being on impressive form.

Manager Tony Bartlett and assistant Harry Browne are pleased with the start the team has made, Bartlett said: "We are very pleased with the style of our play and the control we are exerting on games, especially in this higher league."

"We need to work on our finishing if we are to progress

Hard earned away point

Exeter Ladies 3rd 1 Honiton Hornets 1

WITH Honiton moving up into Petroc league 1 this season and Exeter Ladies moving down into this league it was looking to be a tough contest.

However, Honiton took to the field with a determination to build on the encouraging level of team play from last week and as a result had a good proportion of the play in the first-half.

When Exe did break through the visiting defence Player-of-the-Match Sue Stone made some great saves to keep the home team out until shortly before half-time when they broke the deadlock.

In the second-half Honiton continued to pass the ball well and keep Exe on the back foot. This continued pressure finally paid off when Katrina Tuck found Becky Bond in the circle. Becky's initial shot half-cleared by the keeper but Bond scored from the rebound.

Honiton worked hard for the remainder of the match and cleared a late short corner awarded to the hosts to earn themselves a very well deserved point.

While Exe may have been expecting a more one-sided game they will have been pleased to come away with a point after a hard fought match.

gig racing

LYME Regis Gig Club attended Sidmouth's inaugural Regatta last Saturday WRITES JOSEPHINE WHETLOW.

Hospitality and organisation were second to none and we all had a great day.

The Men's B team came in at a very clear first.

The Mixed Crew came second, after storming along in first place and being pipped to the post in the last seconds by Weymouth.

Both crews brought Lyme into an overall third position on the day.

■ FIRST PLACE: The Men's B team with Cox Jackie Ireland.

Wight in superb form

by Richard Jackman

IN a week where the weather took control of both ladies and junior fixtures, the men played their September stableford on Sunday.

It was Dorset County junior Stuart Wight who exploited the conditions and won with an exceptional score of 44 points a score that takes his handicap down to three after only playing golf for less than three years.

Both Stuart and David Lyon have had an excellent year of golf, a testimony to their dedication, family support and to club professional Duncan Driver.

Stuart was the top scorer and won Division One from John Coley with 40 points and Richard Miles was 3rd with 39 points.

Division Two saw Hardy B captain Mark Colley win with 42 points from Neil Pollard 38 points who beat Lee Caddy, also 38 points on countback.

The Junior Order Of Merit was held on Saturday and 1st with a net 71 was George Yorke followed by Bradley Searle - 73 who pushed Stuart Wight into 3rd on countback, also with 73.

Not for the first time this year the weather had the final say for the ladies' medal, and although play began the weather closed in.

AVR's to the fore in Minster Challenge

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

JANE Bennett ran the Cardiff half marathon alongside 20,000 other runners on a very hot morning.

She reports that it was very well organised with amazing crowds and is a thoroughly recommend race.

Jane was pleased to finish 11,304 out of 20,000 in 2:19 running alongside her daughter and raising money for CLIC.

What a cracking day for a race it was on Sunday for the Minster Challenge series of runs.

The 7.4 mile challenge course had amazing properties with what appeared to be much more uphill than down, add to that a soupcon of Devon mud and woodland tracks splendidly covered in the first autumnal leaf droppings like a welcoming confetti.

All of this had little effect on AVR's Matt Clist as he was far in the lead, then somehow got lost around the five-mile point and could not recover his deficit finishing 5th in 53:13 allowing Julian Ridgley to win in 51:14.

There was considerable AVR success with Phil Bayliss 1st over 60, 7th overall, 56:18; Amy Greenhalgh was the first lady finisher, 8th overall, 56:24; Eleanor Wood 1st over 55 lady, 26th overall, 1:01:11 and Margaret Pearce 1st over 40 lady, 40th overall, 1:09:36.

Rupert Pady had a splendid run to be 6th, 56:06 as did Gavin Watts, 12th, 57:35. Shaun Denslow and Mark Nevell had a fine battle, with Shaun the victor 18th, 1:00:15 and Mark 19th just 3 seconds adrift.

Tony Wood finished 21st, 1:00:34; Ian

■ ON YOUR MARKS: Axe Valley Runners pictured before the start of the Minster Challenge.

Apps 24th, 1:00:49; Ian Clements 28th, 1:03:11 and Roger Bramley 29th, 1:03:23.

Richard Hale and Adele Foxwell had a ding-dong battle with Richard better downhill and Adele better uphill, however Richard deviously used a muddy section to pull ahead to be 32nd, 1:05:03 with Adele 34th, 1:06:13.

Gareth Walker was next home 39th, 1:09:13; Dr Jacqui Rees-Lee 41st, 1:10:14; Alan Morbey 43rd 1:11:02; Anna McLoughlin 45th, 1:11:28 and Steve Reynolds complete with arm plaster 47th, 1:11:59.

Dawn Potter overtook Dave Mutter who was full of Turkish delights just before the end to be 48th, 1:13:41 with Dave 49th, 1:14:7.

Tracey Anning-Beckett was 54th, 1:18:21; Susan Northcott 60th, 1:22:57; Andrew Smart 61st, 1:23:15; Dave Braunton 65th, 1:28:46; Natalie Wakelin 67th, 1:39:28; Margaret Craker 68th, 1:48:23 and Leah Craker 69th, 2:06:31.

Ollie Cate was the victor and 1st 11-13 boy in the shorter Fun Run taking 20:25, followed by Bobby Simpson 2nd overall and first boy 14-16, 20:32 with Ben Franklin 3rd in 20:50.

Hannah Bramley was first girl 14-16, 12th overall, 24:13.

The fun run was mostly juniors, but Liz Thomas ran and was 1st lady over 55, 58th overall in 39:25. Arun Hawkes was 6th, 21:45; May Wood 11th, 23:55;

Ethan Day 13th, 24:57; Max Bowskill 14th, 25:56; Caleb Sinclair 21st, 27:01; Adam Burrough 23rd, 27:19; Ella Magrane 27th, 30:52; Jamie Davey 31st, 31:06;

There was also a mini challenge won by Sharna Edge, with Peter Johns 2nd and Darcie Morton 3rd.

Many AVR's helped with route marking, timing and back marking including Garry Perratt, Paul Johns, Sue Venn, Alison Gould, Janet Woodward, Gill Day, Jon Day, Becki Davey and Natalie Wakelin.

Many thanks to all helpers at Axe Valley Community College lead by Sara Feldman and, of course, the Majorettes and drum group.

Rare defeat for Axe Cliff seniors

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

LAST week 30 members, 15 teams of two, contested the Ron Miller Claret Jug.

Ron, the Sections former Treasurer, presented the Trophy on his retirement three years ago.

The format is Stableford with both scores to count and three teams recorded excellent totals in the 70s.

The winners, with 73 points, were Keith Wilson & Charles Whitbourn, runners-up with 72 points were Mick Tones & Bob Flay and third with 71 points, Chris Jowett & Gilbert Cox.

There were 2x2s from Keith Wilson and Phil Wilkins.

The previous day the team visited near neighbours Sidmouth and a closely fought match ended in victory for the home side by 3½ to 2½.

As Axe cliff won the earlier encounter 4-2 the overall result for the year favoured the visitors.

Winning pairings for Axe Cliff were Neil Moorcraft & Nick Povey and John Mant & Malcolm Glass.

The half point was won by Rob Grove & Peter Rollason.

SENIORS

THE Seniors' team lost a rare home match when beaten 4-2 by Taunton Vale in a closely fought encounter.

The winning pairings for Axe Cliff were Gerry Turner & Charles Whitbourn and Malcolm Glass &

Rob Grove.

Fifteen members took part in the recent away day at Came Down.

The team event was won with 92 points by Gerry Turner, Nick Povey & Rob Grove.

The singles winner was Jack Bannister with 38 points, second was Rob Grove with 34 points on countback from John Mant in third place with the same score.

Nearest the pin prizes were won by Neil Moorcraft at the 7th and Chris Walker at the 9th.

On Friday the October medal attracted a field of 27 members and was won by Phil Christmas (25) with an excellent 68 nett.

Second, with 70 nett, was Rob Heard (15) and third Gilbert Cox (19) with 71 nett.

There were two 2s from Gilbert Cox and Geoff Hughes

MAIN CLUB

THE September Stableford was won last Sunday by Andrew Hellier with 38 points.

Simon Sweetland took second place beating Richard Orsman on count back both players with 36 points.

Congratulations also to John Collins who had a hole-in-one on the 18th.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

CAPTAIN VS VICE CAPTAIN

ON the surface the Captain v Vice-Captain game should be a fun outing between club members with no display of undue allegiance surfacing at all.

But Vice Captain Ron Graham, in an unexpected display of generosity, treated his team members to a chocolate bar before the games.

The divide was consolidated there and then and the matches became keenly fought.

As it happened Captain Dave Morgan treated his team to after match refreshment so the 'treats' were evened out, as were the matches with the end result being a draw, five games each.

MARKER CUP Rd1

THE first round of the Marker Cup left a few members floundering to compete.

A 36-hole medal competition played over two weekends meant getting a good first round score was vital.

Those in contention were in Div1 Mike O'Reilly nett 67, James Spiller nett 69 and Richard Beard nett 70. Div2 were equally close with Mark Fowler nett 70, Buzz Harris nett 70 and Mike Watts nett 71.

MIXED SECTION

SUNDAY was the last game of the Mixed Match Season.

The match was against Exeter Golf & Country Club with Honiton winning 6-3.

These mixed matches are popular social occasions as the matches are always followed by a meal.

■ ALL SQUARE: Honiton Golf Club captain Dave Morgan and vice-captain share the club's annual Captain v Vice captain trophy.

Overall seven matches were played with Honiton winning four, losing two with one cancelled.

Once again thanks must go to Jan & John Dickinson for organising these events.

LADIES SECTION

THE early bird gets the worm, and on Wednesday it also got the best of the weather.

As the morning wore on the fog came in and the rain came down soaking the greens and driving all but the hardiest off the field.

But several ladies did complete the course in our Yellow Ball competition and managed to put in some very good scores.

Top of the list this week were team of Joan Smith, Jan Portlock & Lin Wallwork with 101 stableford points.

The 2nd and 3rd places were separated on count back with Henrietta Bradshaw, Jenny Raison & Shirley Lewis just ahead of Elizabeth Ward, Gill Johnson & Di Wall both scoring 98 points.

JUNIOR SECTION

JOHN Dickinson and junior Ben Deam played at Okehampton Golf Club recently representing Honiton in the Adult/Junior Regional competition.

John and Ben were in the top half of the results and both enjoyed the day.

Cup triple for Boyland as Sidmouth march on SIDMOUTH Town cruised through to the second round of the Devon Premier cup with a 4-1 win over north Devon-based Dolton at Manstone Road on Saturday.

The Vikings grabbed the early advantage when Tony Cox's corner was gleefully smashed home by Mike Stamp.

The lead was doubled in the 23rd minute when Jake Boyland headed home after good work from Dan Churchill.

Boyland scored again moments later with a crisp drive from the edge of the area.

But some slopping defending allowed the visitors to grab a lifeline before the interval.

But Boyland completed his hat-trick to seal the win. But manager Paddy Thomas was far from overly impressed, he said on the club's website: "We needed to get back to winning ways after a couple of defeats."

"Cup matches are one-off affairs and we shouldn't forget we did win and are still in the Cup."

"But we looked sloppy for much of the game.

"Dolton worked hard and were a decent team, they certainly seemed to enjoy the facilities and hospitality on offer at Manstone."

"It was good to get Mike(Stamp) back as he brings a physical presence to the midfield. He and Mark Badcock both set a good example for the youngsters at the club."

"Jake (Boyland) took his goals very well and looks a threat going forward - he will also get stronger as he plays more often."

"We need to get the basics right as too many players complicate simple tasks, while mistakes can happen its unforced errors that concern Oggy (Nick Ogden, assistant-manager) and myself."

Sidmouth, one of 11 of the 16 South-west Peninsula League Division One (east) members to progress in the competition, return to league action on Saturday with the visit of Appledore.

In the Devon & Exeter League division three Sidmouth Reserves went down 4-1 at early season pace-makers Newtown Reserves.

Next up for Rikki Pitter's boys is the weekend's trip to another unbeaten outfit in Exeter University 4ths.

Elsewhere, Feniton eased into round two of the Devon Premier Cup with a 9-1 mauling of hosts Lee Moor.

It was a good day for Honiton Town too. The Lacemen thrashed visiting Barnstaple Reserves 7-2 at Mountbatten Park to take their place in the draw for the second round of the Devon Senior cup.

Honiton entertain unbeaten Lymington in the D&E division Two on Saturday.

Honiton Reserves completed a club win double with a 6-2 win in Division Six at Exwick Village.

Finally, after a weekend off Ottery St Mary return to action with a trip to Upton.
